

Randal Crowe III

August 15, 1948 - February 15, 2019

Randal H. Crowe, III, died peacefully in his sleep early Friday morning, February 15, 2019.

Randy is survived by his wife of 10 years, Trisha, and children Kimberly and Randal IV. He also leaves behind two grandchildren, Taylor and Randal V, a brother Bruce and his wife Jane.

Randy was a Navy veteran of the Vietnam war. He was born in Malden, Massachusetts, but primarily grew up in Macon, GA, among his many cousins.

After his military service he attended Middle Georgia College. Soon after, Randy began a 35 year long career at Bank of America's Fleet Leasing Company in Houston. He started in sales and worked his way up to become the VP of Fleet Leasing. Randy's responsibilities included sales and business development in the bank's southwest foot print. He was instrumental in building the lowest performing territory into the second largest volume market in the entire company.

Randy's innovation helped him to reimagine, design and implement the first "synthetic lease" used in the vehicle group, which in turn allowed him to sign the company's largest customer on record.

In 1999, Randy launched Fleetnet2 Financial Services, Inc., a lease facilitator company. What began as a small business quickly grew to a portfolio of 20 plus commercial customers with revenue exceeding $1.0 million each calendar year. In addition, Randy developed an internet enabled fleet management program called "Data Mart" enabling him to track and display current fleet operating costs in real time. He sold this company in 2004 but continued to work in the fleet leasing industry 6 more years before retiring in 2010.

Randy enjoyed long distance running, and In the 90's, was proud to have finished the New York City Marathon, the London Marathon, and the Houston

Marathon. In his younger days, he enjoyed off-shore fishing in his boat, and loved golf for most of his life, and certainly since retiring.

In 2007, Randy met Trisha on a golf course at a Single Houston Area Golfers event and a short time later they were married. After his retirement, Randy and his wife Trisha became members of Gleannloch Pines Golf Club where he was involved in many of the men's groups as well as club tournament play. He and Trisha loved taking golf trips and exploring new courses around the country, and, he was able to enjoy golfing almost daily with his retired buddies and on weekends with his wife Trisha.

They say "In order to find a man's true character, play golf with him", and if you ever played golf with Randy, then you know he was loved and respected by all. He loved his family, friends and most of all held a love of life in general. He worked hard, played hard, was competitive, and most of all determined. A life well played.

The family requests that dress at Randy's service be "GOLF CASUAL"

“ A true gentlemen has left us. A competitor that was humorous, witty, and thoughtful. We played together with Pat, and John on several occasions, and after that we ran into each other several times over the years the last being at Wes's tribute where we shared some memories of times past, and I introduced him to my wife Shelly. I regret I will miss his service since I wont return from my second home in Barbados until the 28th. My condolences to Trisha, and the entire Crowe family

“ As luck would have it we moved in next door to Randy and Fran when Kimberly was only six months old. We enjoyed the wonderful friendship as we proceeded to have our son Ryan and Randal IV soon followed. The children were great playmates becoming lifelong friends! The two families shared many celebrations and holidays over the next ten years. We enjoyed Randy's upbeat spirit and infectious humor during pool parties, board games, happy hours, dinners and boating. There were indeed special times and Randy will remain in our hearts forever.

“ To experience the loss of a friend is difficult. To experience the loss of your spouse is heartbreaking. My prayers and thoughts are with Trisha as she journeys through her grief path for Randy. I have many funny memories of Randy and am blessed to have known him. Life is short and we are not promised tomorrow love fully and hug often. I still miss Wes today and imagine him, Pat and Randy getting up a golf game or two together now.

“ It is often said that taking photos is not that important until it is all you have left. I am thankful to have found some of these treasures.

“ It breaks my heart to lose such a good friend so unexpectedly. I treasure the time I got to spend with y'all the last couple of years playing golf in Ruidoso. Randy had a wicked sense of humor, a kind heart, and was just a tender soul. It was a gift to see how much you cared for each other. He will be truly missed by all who knew him.

“ Randy's wit and talent for writing funny poems of his experiences on the golf course are just a few of my memories. He had a wicked golf swing which out drove most (except Jon Coon) and loved, loved the game. He will definitely be missed by those of us in SHAG and F&F!

“ A terrific, first class friend that will really be missed by so many. So sad.

“ I didn't get to see Randy and Trisha much, only at the golf outings, but the times I did it was a true pleasure. I always admired how happy they were together and how they made everyone around them feel "special". Randy was one of my favorite golfer to be paired with at our outings, even though he would always beat me, he was the type of friend you didn't mind losing to. He will be missed by many!
