

Seth Andrew Gould

March 31, 1978 - May 28, 2022

Seth was a life-long Houstonian born at Rosewood Hospital and the son of Eddie Gould and Theresa Hamala Gould. Seth graduated from Klein High School in 1997.

Seth was passionate about his family, Christmas, Klein soccer, Texas A & M, and baseball. He was a loyal fan of the Astros and would share his opinion about his baseball heroes, especially Jeff Bagwell, with anyone who would listen. Attending baseball games and visiting ballparks across the country shaped his travels. Two of his favorites were Wrigley Field and Fenway Park, but he loved the unique atmosphere offered at each stadium. Seth loved spending time with family, always planning well in advance to ensure nothing conflicted with a family event. The Hamala family Christmas was always particularly special to him. He was a loyal employee of Kroger for the past 17 years; he took pride in his work and was never late a day in his life.

Seth is predeceased by his grandparents, Leonard and Elizabeth Gould, and Dominik and Marie Hamala.

He is survived by his parents Eddie and Theresa Hamala Gould; brother, Justin Gould; sister-in-law, Stacey Gould; nephew, Carson Gould; and niece, Parker Gould. Seth is also survived by his many aunts, uncles, and cousins who have loved and supported him throughout his life.

The family wishes to thank all the friends and family who have reached out with prayers and words of comfort during this difficult time. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in honor of Seth to Texas Children's Hospital or Texas Tic Kids.

There will be a reception celebrating Seth immediately following the service in the Parish Hall at St. Ignatius Catholic Church. All are invited.

For I am the Lord, your God,
Who grasp your right hand;
It is I who say to you,
Do not fear, I will help you.
Isaiah 41:13

“ Your smiling face will always shine upon us! You leave great memories with all of your families and your abundance of friends and acquaintances, and man, you have plenty! One of the biggest fans of Star Wars, WWF and sports. You got to experience so many places, especially the trips to the many ball parks and the Astros Spring training camps. The Stros keep hitting those home runs for you. We miss you!

“ Seth's face would always light up when talking about the Astros. This was his happy place. I believe Seth is resting with his feet up, front row tickets, cheering on his favorite team. Rest In Peace, Seth.

“ We we're so shocked and saddened to learn of Seth's passing! We met Seth when he was 3 years old when we moved from Illinois to a house across the Street from the Goulds. They welcomed us with open arms as Texans do. Seth loved his Houston Astros along with so many other things. He loved life in general. He will truly be missed by many!

“ I'm so sad and shocked by Seth's passing. The world has lost a good human being and someone who undoubtedly touched many, many lives.

Seth and I became friends as children, growing up on Heathrow Lane in Kleinwood. Although we haven't lived in the same town since high school, over the years, we've stayed close. Just recently, when we lost our dog, Seth reached out for many days to see how I was doing, one time sending a pic of him with a giant statue of Reveille to "make me feel better." It did indeed. His concern and sincerity so touched me. How lucky am I to have had such a genuine soul as my lifelong friend.

I will miss your texts, selfies, long phone calls, and of course, going to Astros games with you. Rest In Peace, my dear friend. I miss you already.

Sending my deepest condolences to Eddie, Theresa, Justin, and their entire family.

“ Dear Eddie, Theresa and Justin,

I am so sorry to hear about the loss of this very important member of your family.

I had a few conversations with Seth at Kroger and found him to be quite delightful to talk with. I knew that things at the checkout would always be in order when he was there.

Praying for God to give you peace, comfort and wisdom during this difficult time.

“ Most of my memories of Seth are from family get togethers when we were growing up. It is wonderful to read all of these glowing tributes to see the amazing man he became. I do remember one time I came down to Houston when I was in college and I ended up watching Justin and Seth. I think I sat with Seth for an hour trying to get him to eat his vegetables with dinner. He outlasted me :-)

“ *Theresa and Eddie,
We were so very sorry to learn of Seth's passing. He was at Klein at the same time as T.C., so it really hit home to learn you lost your child at such a young age. Prayers for comfort for you both, and for Seth as he enters into God's kingdom for all eternity.
Blessings,

“ Eddie, Theresa and Justin - we were absolutely devastated to hear the news about Seth. His love of life (and the Astros) was so infectious that he left lasting memories for so many people. My wife, Wai, who only met him once started sharing all her memories of him when she heard the news - most of them made me laugh. My friends, who became his friends, also shared funny episodes. He was such a good 'story producer' :)

We will miss his infectious, cackling laugh and his ease of life. I also think he would approve of the name of his funeral home - 1060 W. 'Addison' is the home of Wrigley Field and the Cubs, a place where I shared some very memorable days with Seth.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you,

*Love,
Jeremy, Wai, Zachary and Alexandra*

“ *Dear Theresa and Eddie,
So very sorry you are experiencing a heartbreak like this. We met Seth when he was a young adult, and he was such a delightful young man. He loved working at the Minute Maid Park so much that we thought perhaps he owned stock in the stadium, the Astros, or something. Incredible knowledge about the team and everything baseball. It was pure joy listening to him share his passion. Seth had a dry sense of humor and was very quick-witted. When he changed jobs and started working at Krogers we got to know Seth better. Check-out time at Krogers was the highlight of our shopping experience. We looked for Seth just so we could experience his humor and engage in a bit of bantering. He was so good at throwing out funny comments just to engage us in conversation, which always led to some sort of fun "back and forth" dialog. (We were probably a source of entertainment for him.) Seth always managed to successfully capture us in conversation, even if we had to share him with other customers at the self-serve checkout. (He certainly mastered multi-tasking.) Seth was so likable and always a joy to be around. A trip to Krogers will never be the same. He was an absolute joy to be around, and he will be greatly missed. Every shopping trip and mention of the Astros, we will think of Seth and the many moments of fun and happiness we shared. Love leaves many memories and Seth was loved by all.*

*Love you, Theresa and Eddie

“ Theresa and Eddie

Remembering our fallen heroes this week. I believe that Seth did more to contribute to the wellbeing of society than many in our society today. He is truly a fallen hero in my book as well, especially with what he accomplished in his life. He hit a walk off home run into heaven. My heart aches. Thank you Seth for YOUR service. You'all are in our prayers. He was the centerpiece of the puzzle that made up all our families. He was connected to all of us. We love you and will miss you.

“ Eddie and Theresa -

Diane and I are so sorry to hear of Seth's passing. It's such shocking and sad news.

I know how much y'all loved him and took such great care of him. I was always impressed how y'all encouraged him to play tennis, get his license, work hard, live on his own, etc. despite his disability. I was equally impressed how Seth took it all on.

I know y'all have great memories to lean on during this difficult time. Personally, I loved when he was at our Kleinwood tennis matches. I loved talking sports with him and giving him a hard time about the Aggies. He was always a good sport and dealt it back to me about Ohio State...lol.

As you know, the Aggies, Astros and Texans now have their # 1 fan in heaven!! Also, I'm sure we'll see Academy's profits drop because Seth had every new hat and jersey that came out...lol. He was a true and loyal sports fan!!

May God rest his soul because he truly is in heaven now. In time, may God bring you all peace!

We will keep you and your family in our prayers and certainly will pray for the repose of Seth's soul.

“ On behalf of myself and wife Luanne, Theresa and Eddie you have our deepest condolences for the lost of your son Seth, my dear friend. Although I have known Theresa and Eddie sense the 60s, during our high school days at St.Pius, it wasn't until several years ago we ran into each other at a Astro spring training game in Florida. Seth was with them and we became fast friends. It was a easy friendship built on a mutual agreement of respect for America's favorite pastime and our favorite team the Stros. The love of baseball was our common connection, but beyond that we spoke everyday sometime 2-3 times a day. If we didn't talk we text through out the day. Seth would often call to talk about players, coaches and stats. He was so knowledgeable about baseball that he could out coach some of the MLB coaches today, at least that's what he would tell me. Seth was big on trivia and always knew these random baseball facts. He would often try and stump me. And when he did, to buy some time I would tell him I had another call coming and and tell him I'll call back. Little did he know I was googling his trivia question, only to find out he was right every time. We agreed to disagree about certain players and teams, especially his love of the Aggies, he knew I bled burnt orange, so we had our rounds with that, but oh it was fun to tease. I'd tell him to do his research and look at the History of the Longhorns, and he would always say don't look at the past look at the present. Seth with you gone it's hard not to look at the past, but you lived your life to the fullest. Thank you for sharing the love of the game with me and all the memories. Watching the Astros will not be the same, but I know there are angels in the outfield. Love you buddy Stan Jankowski

Our friend Seth Gould brought so much fun into our lives! From his early days of jumping up and down on Bob and Mary Hall's River house couches as a 5-year-old singing "My Baby is American Made" over and over and over to our last meal together at Bar-B-Que Inn, any time with Seth was a good time filled with comradery, bantering, sports talk and so much laughter. Although our last scheduled Astros' game was cancelled due my illness, Seth called the next day to check on me and sent 2 more texts messages the next week asking me how I was feeling? We felt like Seth's friends, but all knew the "Best Friends" title went to Eddie and Theresa. Seth so looked up to Justin and loved Stacey and quick to brag on the achievements of his nephew Carson and niece Parker. In our conversations, Seth always seemed to site conversations about all his uncles, aunts and cousins by their first and last names. It seemed like he wanted to make sure we knew who he was talking about since we knew both the Goulds and Hamala family members. He would tell us about the visits the road trips his cousins included him in and everything they did for him. He was so proud of all their personal accomplishments. We will always his early years' love for his WWF and his wrestling figures especially Hulk Hogan and Rick Flare. His adult years his love turned to the Aggies, Astros and Texans. Seth never talked about his successes, but Eddie and Theresa, we thank you for allowing us to be a part of his life and experiencing all his successes. Linda and I always think of ourselves as on that long list of "Best Friends" of Seth Gould!
