“ My deepest sympathies to you and your family, I was shocked to hear of Stan's passing. I had the pleasure of meeting Stan thru mutual friends in Boulder, Co in the early 70's.

He was full of life and a true southern gentleman.

Always looking very fashionable on the dance floor all the way down to his platform shoes. You couldn't miss him in his orange Cutless. I'd like to share a couple of old photos up above Boulder. He was always open to new adventures. I was lucky to have known him

“ You know after reading a lot of these, and taking to more of you, it appears that he had more than one best friend. He had the kind of personality once you're around him for any length of time you're his best friend. With all the stuff that he's done to me and a lot of you others, it's a wonder one of us hasn't shot him ourselves! When my sister started dating him, I sure hoped she likes him, cause I sure did. Over the years we became close friends, we hunted & fished and probably drank 100 barrels of brown water. He's left a huge hole in my heart. I've already had to bury one brother, now another (even though he's not blood me). Private Joke asked me later and I'll explain. I know he's in heaven and little brother Calvin and my dad probably have already taken him fishing, and Mama Jean is frying-'em up tonight! See you soon brother, and remember who loves you!!!!

“ What a great guy and a great friend. I will miss him. Always full of fun and laughs. I thoroughly enjoyed working with him and partying with him. One of the best things I will remember is how nice he was to my son when we all went hunting. Very gracious. Best wishes to your family brother.

“ Crazy Uncle Stan....that's how we referred to him in our house. You never knew what he was going to say or do, but you knew it was going to be hilarious! I remember growing up thinking of him as some kind of celebrity in our family. We didn't see him often in our little home town of Denison because he was always living out some kind of crazy adventure....skydiving, wrestling alligators, hunting, fishing. But he always showed up at Christmas with a truckload of the most coveted gifts for the entire family. Especially for me and Jennifer. He always spoiled us with the name brand clothes and whatever else was popular at the time. Nothing was ever wrapped because he would buy it on Christmas Eve and show up with armfuls of department store bags. He would sit and tell us stories for hours! Such sweet memories! I will miss all of his random text messages that made me laugh out loud. I'll also miss his messages on Cowboys game day. I wanted to text him so badly during this last nail biter game, but I'm sure he was enjoying it from Heaven with my Grandpa. He has helped my mom and our family get through some rough times and I'm so thankful that I was blessed to call him my Uncle. His larger than life personality will never be forgotten.

“ Stan ... I can't believe you left us so unexpectedly buddy!! It still feels like a bad dream. We worked together for over 6 years, you are definitely going to be missed by me and many others!! With the loss of my father in 2017, you sir definitely filled the void of my conversation I had with him ... our conversations about hunting, fishing and all sports. Even though you were a despised Cowboys fan!!

Every time I would call Stan to ask what he's doing, he's reply would be either "up on a roof" or "working turtle, that's what I do!!" My reply would be "working them lips, or lips just-a-flapping!!" He was always talking to someone or he was unquestionably never lost for words and that's why he had so many friends!! One thing for sure Stan had a knack to make people laugh or at least put a smile on their face. Like the times we would go to lunch at a particular restaurant and he thought he was fluent in the language of whatever type of food we were going to eat. His favorite was Chinese ... those were some of the most embarrassing times of my life!! He definitely kept you on your toes!! He was always trying to do or say something crazy!! Also some people might not know he would like to give nicknames to most of his friends. Not really for sure how he would come up with some of them ... for example turtle ?? Stan was certainly one of a kind!!

I know we gave each other a hard time, all the time but I will always treasure our friendship. Even if you did like to post the same fish in multiple pictures, like he would get lucky enough to catch more than one fish!! All joking aside Stan was a great angler he would tell you himself!! Also he was : Born for High Adventure, in the NASCAR Hall of Fame, Advisor to Jerry Jones and Donald Trump, Author, Blogger, America's Action Figure and my personal favorites, On the covers of Sports and Outdoors and GQ Magazines!! Just a few of his accolades that he mentioned through the years!! He was truly a character and we all have many great memories with him. He certainly was the life of the party and fun to be around!! Stan loved his family and friends that was very transparent.

Have a cocktail waiting for me, until when we meet again buddy!!

Your Friend,
Jeff (aka Turtle)

“ I will miss you more than words could ever express. You were my “2nd Dad” and somebody I could count on no matter the situation and you were always there when I needed you. I might add that you were one of the most genuine man I’ve ever known in my 24 years of life. You could tell a story like no another and sure did live your life to the fullest. You were one of the men that gave me a passion for hunting and fishing and boy were you good at it. I know you’re up there livin a honky tonk dream and hunting and fishing like no other. You were the most prideful American I’ve ever known and a true legend and I’m sure many others would agree. I pray that you’re lookin down and smiling at me, you sure do mean a lot to myself and many others. I love you Stan “America’s Action Figure”

“ Stan-

From the moment I met you I knew you were a special man. One of a kind. You accepted me into your family with open arms and I will forever be thankful for that. You were a man of many words. Many, many humorous words tinged with life, love and affection. I took to you like butter does to toast. You just had that spark about you.

He loved to bust your chops and have fun. That was one of many, many reasons I love that man. No matter what kind of day you had, he'd find a way to put a smile on your face and make you laugh.

You had an uncanny ability to strike up a conversation with anyone. You loved your family and friends greatly. You doted on your bride, your children, and grandkids like no man ever does. Truly a man's man, a family man, and someone I truly look up to.

I will forever cherish the memories I was able to make with you and time I was blessed to know your beautiful soul. I will miss our domino nights, our chit chats, your adventures with Sidney, shot time with the good stuff, our shared love for music, and your fashion tips. I will be looking for that dog with the star

Please watch over all those you dearly loved. We miss you so much. Fly high angel!

-Love always, Shay (“Uptown”)

“ Stan it's only been a week now and I still can't believe that I won't ever see my football Buddy again. You've touched my life in so many ways you could never imagine. I will miss you so much and our texts during the football games. I have never met a man that have touched so many people in so many different ways mostly through your jokes laughter and cutting up all the time. Never a dull moment when you were around. So Fly High my brother love you and keep an eye on my mother for me until I see y'all again! Go Cowboys!

“ Hey Mr. Cowboy that was my name for him from the first day that I met him coming through my drive-thru line at Whataburger he was a very nice and friendly man that had to have his sausage and cheese taquito and his coffee never nothing different so one morning he tricked me and came through and he changed his voice on me and I mistaken him for a woman and that just tickled him to death I will always remember you Cowboy may you R. I. P Faye from Whatabuger hope heaven have plenty of coffee and taquitos

Faye Smith - September 09, 2021 at 09:10 PM

“ Stan....I just can't believe it! You have always been so full of life! You always brought a smile into the office, especially when you brought donuts! Which you did a lot! I enjoyed working with you for at least 10 years, I can't remember how long. I suppose time flies when we're having fun.
I know you cared about everyone, including the animals....I remember one time a deer got caught in between the wrought iron fence pickets at the office....it was early in the morning and still dark. You went to the back warehouse and found a blow torch to cut the metal and free the deer! Plus it was still dark outside! You just had to save the deer....
I will miss your occasional text just to keep in touch.
Rae, Kim and Family, continued thoughts and prayers to you at this difficult time.
I know Stan will be and is already missed by all who knew him!
With love and sympathy, Millie Allen

“ Miss you Dad more than words can express. Keep thinking this isn't real. Your larger-than-life personality and love for your family and friends is endless. “I Can Only Imagine” what you're doing in Heaven. I'm guessing you finally found that dog with the star! You did it Your way and touched so many lives, often leaving them shaking their head thinking “what did that crazy man just say/do.” Thank you for loving all of us with all you have and for the countless lessons and memories. You made me a better man. To say you are missed tremendously would be a huge understatement. I'm forever grateful and know you're now smiling down watching over us. I love you and How Bout Them Cowboys!
