

Adejumoke Sule

June 2, 2018

Adejumoke Valentina Temilade Sule (Nee Adedinsewo) fondly called "Jummy" by parents, friends and associates, was born on Sunday February 22nd, 1987, to Pastor & Pastor (Mrs.) Adefemi and Olayele Adedinsewo of the Leyo ruling family of Ondo Kingdom in Nigeria.

For her elementary education, she attended Richmab Nursery and primary school, Ibadan, Nigeria, and the Unity secondary school, Ejigbo, Osun state Nigeria for her high school education. Also, she attended the popular SFA (Stephen F. Austin) State University, Nacogdoches Texas where she studied and obtained her Bachelor's degree in Social Work (BSW). She worked at various times with Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) among other places.

She married her heart throb Babatunde Sule, whom she met while working with TDCJ in August 2012 and the union is blessed with two boys, Emmanuel Iseoluwa (4) and Daniel Ifeoluwa (3).

Adejumoke was a Christian who loved God, and devoted her time to working with the children in church. She was a practical person who loved creativity with her hands. She loved cooking, decorations, also, listening to music and watching reality shows like impractical jokers.

Jummy was a darling of everyone, cheerful and ever smiling.

She was diagnosed of cancer in the second quarter of 2017. All medical helps sought and applied could still not keep her here with us.. She went to meet with the Lord in the morning hours of June 2nd, 2018 in Tyler ,Texas in the warm embrace of her lover Babatunde whom she called Oluwole.Babatunde went thoroughly, patiently and dedicatedly through the hard journey of cancer with her.

It is better imagined and so difficult to comprehend that Jummy's Daddy and Mummy witnessed their dearest Jummy pass on into eternity.

She is survived by her husband, Babatunde, their two sons Emmanuel and Daniel, Adegbemisola Falaki (Sister), Adefemi Adedinsewo Jr. (Brother), Pst and Pst Mrs Adefemi Adedinsewo (Parents), Major and Mrs Jimoh Sule and family (Parents & siblings in-law).

She is loved and we believe God loves her more.

May her gentle soul rest in the LORD's bosom till we meet to part no more.
