

Agnes O Soseipiriala

August 21, 1944 - May 6, 2024

Agnes Osesiyechiama Soseipiriala, who went by Sisi, was born on Aug 21, 1944, to the union of Bob-Daka Soseipiriala and Iwari Florence Iruene in Okrika, Rivers State, Nigeria. She moved to Houston TX USA with her son. After a well-deserved retirement from the Ministry of Social Welfare & Rehabilitation (Children's home), Port-Harcourt, as head chef. Sisi departed this world for a better place on Monday, May 6th, 2024 in Houston, Texas, at the age of 79.

She was a quiet, soft-spoken, hard-working, loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She enjoyed the little things in life, always making the best of everything. She was always kind, loving, and helpful to everyone. Sisi was just an all-round beautiful soul and truly wanted the best for everyone; she always had a word of encouragement for anyone who needed it around her. She had such a generous heart.

Ms. Agnes was in a place of peace and love for all. She had great love and pride for her children and was always there for them, even at her age. Her spirit was always unshakable, as many can attest to the life she led. She always maintained her faith in God despite facing so many challenges in life. We are truly grateful for the time we had with her. One thought she left behind: "As long as we have good health, you don't need a lot to be happy."

Words cannot describe how much Sisi will be missed, but she will always be remembered by all who have known her.

She is survived by her children:

Tamunoibuom Silverline Kalio, Bapakaye Egerton-Wakama, and Asifamaka Egerton-Wakama

Grandchildren:

Boma Egerton-Wakama, Tekena Egerton-Wakama, Belema Egerton-Wakama, Belema Tamunokonbia, Kurotamuno Crossly George, Isaac George, Juliet Tamunokonbia, Dienma Kalio, Agnes T. Kalio, Timothy Tamunokonbia, Eunice Ataisi, Myles Egerton Wakama, Avery Miebaka Wakama, and Eden Kaiyo Wakama

Great Grand children:

Joshua Ayotamuno, Israel Kurotamuno, Samuel Tamunokuro, Joseph Tamunokuro, Joshua Tamunokuro, Soteria Kurotamuno, Ethan Kurotamuno, Victor Acheseomie, Medley Acheseomie, Etoni-Awaji Ataisi Ngor, Pearl Ngor Ataisi Ngor, Abundance Awaji-Mijan Ngor, and Nathan Diepiriye Ataisi Ngor

Daughters-in-law:

Mrs. Tamuno Ayotamuno, Ifeakawanne Wakama, and Shenna Wakama

Grand Son-in-law:

Ataisi Ngoija Ngor

And a host of other relatives and friends too numerous to mention.

“ Sisi, thank you for molding me into the father and husband that I am today.

I thank God for letting us share good, lasting memories, for all the laughs, the cries, and the hard times we had together.

Thank you for taking care of me till your last day and for being my greatest critic and die-hard cheerleader. Words can't describe how much we miss you.

It hurts my heart that I didn't have the chance to say goodbye. I pray God grants you a well-deserved and peaceful rest till we meet again.

“ To My beloved Mum,
you are the foundation of our family, the glue that holds us together, and the safe haven where we can always find peace. Your tireless efforts, your sacrifices, and your unwavering dedication have shaped us into the people we are today. We are grateful for the late nights, the early mornings, and the countless hours you spent helping us grow. We are grateful for the lessons you taught us, the values you instilled in us, and the love you showered us with.
I love you more than words can express, more than any tribute can convey. You are our rock, our mentor, and our hero. I will carry your love, to the next generation.. I will miss you greatly my beloved mummy

“ A shining star, a guiding light, a loving soul that's what you are to us all. With a heart full of kindness, a spirit full of love, and a life full of wisdom, she touched every life she met. Her warmth, her care, and her generosity inspired us to be better people. Her stories, her laughter, and her memories will forever be etched in our hearts.

Grandma, you may be gone, but your legacy lives on through us. We will carry your love, your values, and your strength with us always. We will continue to share your stories, your recipes, and your wisdom with future generations..

Rest in peace, dear grandma. Your impact on our lives will never fade. We love you more than words can express..

“ She isn't strong because that's what she wanted to be..
She didn't choose her story-
In fact, it chose her.
She holds herself together with beautiful composure and magnificent courage..
For as the world thinks she has it all under control, she's almost dying inside at every turn.
But that's what separates her from the rest- you'll never see her break down, lose her cool or fall apart.
The facade she has mastered is evident to everyone she meets, yet the woman who cries herself to sleep- if she can sleep at all- is a person that they would never believe exists.
To all that know her, she's a beacon of glowing hope and strength, for her extraordinary courage in ordinary situations isn't because she's being heroic.. 😞
Well, not in the ways that anyone would think...it's just who she is.
If people knew the struggles she has overcome, the pain she has endured and the mountains she's climbed, they would be amazed.
The woman that falls apart behind closed doors is the same smiling face that greets the world every morning.
She hurts in ways most will never understand and braves the pain with a resolve that would bring most men to their knees..
But that's just who she is and how she lives.
She wasn't given any other choice, so she does what she has to do to keep moving forward with a pep in her step and a light in her heart..
Pain has almost wrecked her more times than she knows and still,
she carries on.
She feels every broken heart and every harsh word.
The difference between her and the rest?
She doesn't let the pain break her.
She's so many things - warrior, survivor and dreamer..
But she's so much more than that.
When all she wants to do is fall apart, she unfurls her wings and flies higher.
That's who she is and what she will always be:

*A strong woman..
Amazing, resilient and free.
It's hard to say goodnight 🥲🥲🥲🥲🥲🥲🥲 adieu sisi* flow.*

What it means to lose you, no one will ever know. We miss your smile, your grace and empathy.

You will forever be in our hearts. We take comfort in the memories we shared, Your guidance and support for many lives has helped promote communities in Nigeria.

My last memories were stories of the life you lived.

You wanted everyone to live in peace and harmony. You were strong, kind-hearted and beautiful inside out.

You lived a great life, nothing was too small to share or make sacrifices. Love you ma.

“ Mama Asifamaka! It is a still a hard shock to hear that you have exited to glory. Memories of Miebaka my late cousin, your last card was very emotional as you cried like a baby and summed up courage and I will not cry again but will live to enjoy my children. That was very courageous. When I heard of the demise of your first son, I was sore afraid how you would take. Thank God you made it to have quality time with Asifamaka. You will be remembered for all the motherly care and prayers for us. We missed you dearly. However we know and believe that you played your mother role and service to God and man, now it's time to rest in the bossom of your creator and watch over us in the spirit.

“ TRIBUTE TO A GALANT SOUL, AUNTY AGNES WAKAMA.

Auntie Agnes, the last of the titans from the loins of Soseipiriala Bob Daka, and notably the longest living soul amongst them all. Born into a family of bravery, auntie Agnes imbibed the family traits of courage, strength, and intelligence amongst others, and was able to navigate through life with ease and grace despite challenging situations and circumstances.

Through the changing scenes of her life, either in sorrow or joy auntie remained steadfast and resilient. Her resolute disposition was remarkable and she remained a pillar of strength and encouragement to members of her family till her last day.

She was beautiful inside out, and family oriented too. She was a loving Soul, Loved everyone around her and would go the extra mile for any one in need of her support. Her watch word at any given moment was peace. To be at peace with all men just as the Bible admonishes us to live. She was very industrious and had the knack of making the most delicious Nigerian dishes you can dream of.

Auntie, your sudden transition is another reminder of the transient nature of this three dimensional reality. Barely five months ago, we were together, eating, talking, laughing, listening to you while sharing some of your childhood experiences and most of the time watching your favourite tv channel, African nollywood with you in your room. Today, I am here viewing your still body in a casket and to say final goodbye! Hard as it's seems to believe, yet is the truth; the impermanence of the material world. While I am grieving over your passing, I am embracing it as it is one of the happening events of life.

I am grateful for the quality time we spent together and the memories shared are priceless gifts to me. My beautiful, amiable auntie, I, Divine and the entire family of Soseipiriala will greatly miss you, but I know and believe that love cannot lose its one. You will always be in my heart.

May your gentle Soul rest in peace. Soe Alaibi-Nwokocha (Daa).
