

Agustina Covarrubias

September 20, 2013

Agustina Covarrubias, age 76, passed away on September 20th 2013 surrounded by her loving family after a long and courageous battle with cancer.

Agustina was born in Durango, Durango Mexico on August 28th 1937. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, sister in Christ and friend to all she knew. She was a faithful Christian and attended the Church of Christ at Northline.

She was a light to the world and she exemplified what it is to be Christ-like. She devoted herself to her family and opened her home to everyone, including strangers who were treated as family. If you visited her home you would leave feeling happy and never left hungry. She adored her numerous family and always tried to help all. She will be missed greatly, but will live in our hearts forever. She believed that if you are a faithful Christian to the end, you will be crowned with the crown of life.

She is preceded in death by her father Santiago Renteria, her mother Bernabe, her sister Basilia (Chila) Renteria de Zezatti, her brother Rodrigo Renteria and her grandson Elijah Luke Lopez.

She is survived by her husband of 58 years, Baldemar Covarrubias Sr.; children, Josue Daniel Covarrubias (Elizabeth), Baldemar Covarrubias, Jr. (Susan), Pablo Covarrubias (Maria), Elizabeth Stoneking (Dallas), Santiago Covarrubias (Maria), Abizai Gutierrez (Raul), Agustina Sara Lopez (Julio), Carlos Covarrubias (Maria), and Maria Moreno. She is also survived by Jocsan Zezatti (Reinette) who she considered a son.

She is also survived by her sisters Carmen Acosta, Maria Cervantes, Irma Arrellano, Maria Sanchez, her brother Jose Renteria and 25 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren and many church brothers and sisters.
