

Barbara Knutson

January 29, 2015

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and friend, Barbara A (Conlon) Knutson passed away on January 29, 2015. Born September 12, 1937 in Kansas City, MO she was preceded in death by her mother, Selma (Lively) and father, Marvin Conlon. On March 14, 2014 she celebrated her 50th anniversary with her husband, Wilbur L (Bud) Knutson. She is also survived by her son, Kristopher L Knutson and wife, Mikki of Spring, TX and their children, Nicole, Stephan and Ethan. Her daughter, Laura A Seaman and husband, Paul and their sons, Sam and Jake live in Glenview, IL. Barbara's brothers, Gregory and Marvin Conlon reside in CA.

After graduating from Daycroft with varsity letters in three sports, Barb earned her B.A. degree in English Literature at Principia College in Elsah, IL. She also received graduate credits from the University of London and University of Iowa. Her love of sports led to 30 years of active participation in the NW Tennis League and Astro season tickets plus two weeks of spring training every year for 20 years. She knew all the stats and kept score at every game. She loved playing games with the family and bridge with friends. We always had season tickets to live theatre and visited the art museums four times a year.

Barbara worked various jobs including travel agent, private secretary, military editor, etc. Family always came first and she picked her careers to comply. She never missed Laura's gymnastic meets or Kris's baseball games. She retired after 30 successful years as a residential realtor. She also chaired on the subdivision water board during her 20 years of service. Work or play she met every day with a smile and gave it her all.

Always strong in the Christian Scientist Church she served in all capacities including reader(s) and board chairman.

A private family memorial service was held February 14, 2015 at the Addison Funeral Home.
