

Barbara J St. Amand

November 30, 1933 - July 9, 2023

Barbara Jane Gagnier St.Amand was born November 30, 1933 in Pontiac Michigan to Joseph and Carrie Gagnier. After finishing high school at St. Fredericks, she married James St.Amand in Lawton Oklahoma. She was blessed with five children and raised them in Berkley Michigan. She loved a challenge and soon became a prominent member of the Sweet Adeline organization where she served in several leadership positions. She orchestrated and directed three groundbreaking musicals recomposed in four-part Barbershop Harmony form. She moved to Dallas, Texas in 1982 to be closer to four of her children and grandchildren. After retiring from the Richardson Credit Union, she moved to The Woodlands Texas where she became an active volunteer in local government and senior citizen communities. Barbara will be remembered for many things, not the least of which was her wonderful baking ability. Her desserts were legendary. Barbara loved her Cowboys and Astros and proudly wore and displayed team colors on game days. For the past several years she was very active in her church, Beautiful Savior our Redeemer Lutheran Church in Spring. There she proceeded to cook, bake, organize and do whatever was needed to promote their ministry. She had a solid Christian belief and clutched to her Catholic upbringing and her newer Lutheran faith until the very end.

Barbara is preceded in death by her parents, her siblings Ed and Josephine, and the father of her children James St.Amand. She leaves behind three siblings, James and wife Charmaign Gagnier, Mary Frank, and Dorothy Gagnier – all living in Michigan. She leaves her legacy to her children Paul and wife Judy St.Amand, James R St.Amand, Carrie Fedro, Laura and husband James Nix and Jean and husband Greg Nixon. She will be missed by grandchildren Danielle, Matthew, Josephine, Frederick, James, Greg, and Barbara as well as great-grandchildren Madeline, Dallas, Remington, Maverick, Lincoln, and Laura.

Barbara celebrated life every day. We will miss her exuberance and ask that you remember her in this way.

“ Aunt Bobbie brought joy, love, laughter and happiness to all of our lives. I have many happy memories of time spent with her. I loved going shopping with her and my Mom whenever they came to visit. Boy, could those two shop! She will be missed very much.
