

Brian Michael Reeves Jr

April 18, 1983 - March 29, 2023

Brian Michael Reeves Jr., age 39 of Spring, Texas passed away on March 29th, 2023. Brian (affectionately known by his family and friends as Bubba (or Pedro!)) was born April 18th, 1983, in Houston, Texas. Brian attended Klein High School in Spring and graduated in the year 2000.

In his spare time, Brian could be found discovering new music or listening to old favorites. His love for music began at a young age, and his wide ranging taste included everything from Eminem to The Eagles to Nirvana. YouTube was Brian's favorite way to discover new things, and he often used it to further his knowledge on his favorite topics, like history and studying the bible. There were so many things Brian enjoyed (like his dad's BBQ ribs, which he claimed he 'loved enough to marry!'), but most of all, he loved his family and spending time with his sons. He often took them to the beach and loved spending his favorite holiday, Halloween, dressing up with them. One of Brian's other favorite pastimes was fishing with his sons at Burrough's Park in Spring; many hours were spent and memories made around the lake there. Brian was also a huge animal person; he loved animals and they loved him. His cat Bear loved him very much but would take any opportunity to attack his sister Jennifer, which Brian found hilarious. He leaves behind a beloved dog, Dakota, who was very special to him.

Brian is survived by his sons, Nathan and Robert Reeves and their mother, Heather; his mother, Sharon Rolan and her husband, Anthony; his father, Brian Michael Reeves Sr., and his wife Rebecca; his siblings, Jennifer Reeves, Jordan Fajkus and her husband Thomas, Haleigh Reeves, Elizabeth Rolan, Matthew Cooper, and Mary Cooper; his nieces and nephew, Emma Houston, Trinity Fajkus and Hudson Fajkus; his aunts and uncles, John Thomas Jordan Jr. and his wife Teresa, Debra Burk and her husband Allen, Max Reeves Jr. and Jeanene Sikorski and her husband, Stanley; his grandparents, JT and Betty Jordan and Max Reeves Sr; and many loving cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Mary Reeves, and his best friend, Aaron Blagg.

Brian's family would like to extend a heartfelt and special thank you to Jaqueline and Philip Blagg, who allowed Brian to live with them and loved him like a son.

“ Although we hadn't seen Brian for many years, we still have love in our hearts for him and many fond memories from his childhood. I know this is going to be the toughest thing his mother, sons and the rest of his family will go through and we sympathize deeply with them all.
Brian was a good boy and my boys love being his friend.

“ I have been a friend of the Reeves family for many years and have seen all the children grow up over that time. Brian jr was always reserved, but discussions reflected a quiet intelligence and a slightly mischievous nature. He had a good sense of humor and was very passionate about his interests. He loved and was very proud of his sons. My thoughts are with the family as they say goodbye much too soon. Love to you all.

“ Bubba was the one who made me a big sister for the first time. He was always with me. I remember he had the He-man toys and I had She-ra and we would play with them together. I remember him being obsessed with Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles. As we got older our interests and taste in music were vastly different. At one point he was really into Bone-Thugs and Harmony and I was always into country music and he would ask me how I could listen to songs that all had basically the same beat. He was so afraid of my driving and it would crack me up when he would be hitting his imaginary break in the passenger seat. I could literally go on and on. I will never forget his laugh or how he had a tendency to mumble when he spoke and I was always like “huh?” Rest in peace little brother. I’ll see you again someday. Hug granny Mary for me
