

Calvin Junior Smith

September 27, 2016

Calvin Junior Smith of Tomball, Texas, formerly of Mason City, Iowa died suddenly of an apparent heart attack, on Tuesday, September 27, 2016.

Calvin was born on July 17, 1956 to Calvin and Florence (Lucas) Smith, Sr. in Mason City, where he attended school. As a teenager Calvin went to live with Leonard and Marlene Gobeli and their family. He served honorably in the United States Army from 1974-76 in Germany. Calvin moved to Houston, TX in 1981 and worked in road and building construction. He married Kris Hubacher on August 18, 1984 and they were blessed with two children. Calvin founded CSCM Excavating in 1992 and served as owner and operator until his death.

Calvin was a proud dad and a prouder grandfather. He loved his wife and family and had a zest for life. Calvin always had time to tell a story, a joke, and make some fun. He was the life of any party, and an awesome cook. He never met a stranger and could visit with anyone and everyone. He was an avid Harley-Davidson rider, a NASCAR fan and a lover of animals, and generous to a fault.

Calvin is survived by his wife of 32 years, Kris; his son Joshua (Elizabeth) Smith and their son, Carson; daughter Tarah Smith; Marlene Gobeli and family; his siblings Bruce (Myrna) Smith, Cheryl Ashe, Charolette Rock, Walt (Molly) Smith, Sam Smith, Pat (Jackie) Smith, and Danielle (Phil) Collins; father and mother-in law John and Esther Hubacher, brother-in-law Mark (Julia) Hubacher; sister-in-law Jan (Don) Sheridan ; brother-in-law Lance (Nichole) Hubacher; and many nieces, nephews and dear friends.

“ We never saw Calvin when he did have a huge smile on his face.
When our tree fell across our street Calvin was there to help before the County could get there. He did for us what the County could not do. That is just one of many times he was there for us,
