

Carmen De Santiago

May 12, 2014

Maria Carmen de Santiago “La Picuda”, of Spring, passed away Monday, May 12, 2014 at the age of 81. She was born on May 26, 1932 in Fort Hancock, Texas to Lucas and Maria Garcia de Santiago. Some of greatest joys were singing at church with her sisters, playing the guitar, listening to music, and daily bible study. She loved to cook and the #1 concern for all her visitors was “have you eaten?” She also like watching Novelas. Carmen is preceded in death by her parents; and sisters, Jesusa Gonzalez, Manuela Tarin, Guadalupe Pacheco, and Maria Guzman. She is survived by sons, Jose Ruiz, Jr. from California, Victor Ruiz from Florida, Jorge DeSantiago from San Antonio, and Daniel DeSantiago from Austin; daughters, Gloria Parker from Spring, Yolanda Gonzaga from Hawaii, Elizabeth Garner from Spring, and Rebecca Wiggins from Keller; 14 grandchildren, Karen, Sara, Joey, Yersha, Lucas, Nia, Crystal, Eric, Nicholas, Nathan, Benjamin, Jessikah, Marcos, and Marisa; 11 great-grandchildren, Drayke, Daysha, Enzo, Kalilah, Rhiannon, Kali, Satya, Jordan, Anthony, Vanessa, Julius, and one great-grandson on the way; and numerous more relatives and friends.

“ My mom in law. Years ago my own mom passed and I spoke with Carmen and asked her if she would be my mom. She & I both shed tears as we embraced and she accepted her new role in my life. We've had many wonderful times of praying and singing together. S
