

Carol Ainsworth

September 25, 1942 - January 15, 2023

Carol Ainsworth passed away on January 15, 2023 at the age of eighty. She spent the last weeks of her life surrounded by loving family and friends. Carol lived her life devoted to her family, her faith, and her friends. We were all truly blessed to have known and to have been loved by her.

She was married to her husband Jerry for 61 years. They were devoted to each other, and she was adored by him. She was a wonderful mother to her children Michael and Angela. She spent her life loving children... her children, grandchildren, great grandchild and many others. Trips to the playground, painting with shaving cream, tea parties, dress up, baking cookies, and board games were a few of the activities you might find at the Ainsworth house over the years. She taught Sunday School, Mother's Day Out, Vacation Bible School, Cub Scouts, and Brownies.

Her faith was her foundation. She loved Jesus and shared her faith with neighbors and friends throughout her life. She served as a church pianist for many years. Most recently, she worshipped at Spring Baptist Church. She had a heart for serving others. She volunteered at church in numerous roles, worked in a food pantry, and volunteered at her children's school. She loved to connect with people. She loved to entertain in her home and often invited a group of ladies to share lunch together. She loved all sorts of crafts and gardening. She could often be found in nature enjoying beautiful spaces. She was a devoted Astros fan.

Carol was the daughter of Roy and Beulah Price. She is preceded in death by her parents and brothers Hollis, Jack, and Grady. She is survived by her husband Jerry Ainsworth; her son Michael Ainsworth, his wife Margie, their son Michael Jr. and wife Angie and son Gabriel, and their daughter Melissa Wiggins; her daughter Angela Martin and her children Noah and Nicholas Martin; and her sister Geraldine Clark and her husband Wayne. She had wonderful lifelong friends including Wanda Harris and Sandra Ford. We miss our Wife, Mom, Granda, Sister, and Friend but know that she is rejoicing in heaven with her heavenly father.

“ I will forever be grateful to Mrs. Ainsworth for helping me raise my children. She came in the middle of the night to keep my older kids while I went to the hospital to have my youngest. She had such a sweet spirit and my children loved her dearly. She was a godly women and a great example of how to live our lives for Christ.

Carol, Jerry , James and I spent many wonderful years together watching our kids grow up. Even though I am very sad at her passing, I know she is in heaven praising God. Heaven has truly gained an angel. Love and prayers for all of the Ainsworth family.

I recently learned of Carol's passing. Our sympathies to the Ainsworth family. I remember that Carol always seemed to care about what I had to say and I thought of her as a modern woman! An influencer in today's terms!
