“ Carolyn and I have known each other since 1967 where we met attending Southwestern Business College (some days we would skip class and just drive around). Although we both attended the same high school, we did not know each other. During those early times, I have great memories of her, her parents and her sister and brothers. Carolyn and her whole family loved to dance and would go most weekends. I enjoyed joining them in those fun times. Although we lost contact, we reconnected in 1979 when my daughter was born. Unfortunately, we lost contact again (about 41 years) as our families grew, and then reconnected again about two years ago on Facebook. We were able to talk and visit during lunches until she became ill. I'll always have great admiration and special memories of her. Carolyn was truly a special person and will be missed by all of us. Rest In Peace, my friend, until we meet again. Condolences to all Carolyn's family and friends. You're in my prayers and may you be comforted in cherished memories.
