

Cecelia Noel

March 12, 2018

Cecelia Elizabeth (Miller) Noel was born April 20, 1930 and she passed away March 12, 2018. Born the sixth child of Edward and Stella Miller in Fort Smith, Arkansas, she completed grade school at St Boniface Catholic Church and graduated from St Scholastica girl's High School. She married Pat Guyse Noel in 1955, then moved to Texas, settling in Houston in 1956. She worked in the oil business, starting as a secretary; she ultimately became a certified petroleum landman in 1981, something of which she was justly proud; she was one of the few women at the time to attain that title. During her career, she worked for Austrol Oil and Superior Oil Companies; however her favorite employment was with the King Ranch Inc. and King Ranch Oil and Gas Company, stationed in Houston. As part of her duties she spent time at the King Ranch House in Kingsville. While her initial career was in oil, her vocation was as a religious education teacher in the Catholic Church, a calling she pursued long after her three sons finished school. She taught at St John Vianney Parish, St Edward Parish, and Prince of Peace Parish. Her other vocation was as wife (married for 59 years until Pat's death in 2015) and mother to their three sons. She was always delighted to be around her grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents; brothers, Edward and wife Mary, John, Earl and wife Flora Jean, Thomas; sisters, Patsy Keating and husband James, Margaret Kemp; sister in law, Dorothy; daughter in law, Laurie; brother's in laws, Robert W and wife Louise, Leon and wife Hilda, Charles Ray; sister in law, Thelma Louise; parent's in law Robert and Pattie

“ Her smiling face, as in her picture, brings back so many precious memories of her. She was always upbeat and happy every time I was fortunate to see her and to visit with her and uncle Pat. I shall miss her; may the doors of Heaven open wide to receive
