

Charles Caldwell

July 7, 2012

Charles Dwaine Caldwell, 61, passed away Sunday, July 8, 2012 after a lengthy illness. He is preceded in death by his brother Kenneth Albert Caldwell and by his grandparents. He is survived by his wife Ruth Louise Caldwell, his parents Edith and Dwaine Caldwell of Amarillo and his brother Rodney Lynn Caldwell and wife Linda of Tyler, Texas. He will be greatly missed by his four beautiful daughters Stacy Richardson and husband Bradley of Spring, Texas, Laura Caldwell of Fairfield, Texas, Melissa Timmons and husband Micah of Amarillo, Charlotte Cordes and husband Stephen of Houston, Texas, and his three granddaughters Abigail, Chloe and Nicole. Charles was born on October 25, 1950. His parents and siblings affectionately referred to him as "Brother." He graduated from Palo Duro High School in Amarillo in 1969. He received his Masters of Industrial Engineering from Texas Tech University in 1975. He met and married Ruth Louise Childers while at Tech and they enjoyed 37 years together. Charles worked for Pantex as an engineer for 36 years. He faithfully served on the Deacon Board and as a Sunday School teacher at First Family Church for 23 years. His daughters believe he was the best Daddy ever. He often reminded them that "God is our refuge and strength, an ever present help in times of trouble" (Psalms 46:1).

A memorial service will be held at First Family Church 6101 S. Bell St. in Amarillo on Friday, July 13th at 10am with a reception to follow. Reverend Billy D. Nickell will officiate. Please send any memorials to First Family Church or to Memorial Hermann TIRR in Houston, Texas.

“ Charles was a wonderful person. He was a joy to be around. I am sad to learn that he no longer walks the Earth, but I know that he is rejoicing in Heaven. He will always be remembered with much love and thankfulness for having known him.
