“ Met Chuck in Ohio as a teenager. He was my first love. There was a group of us that all hung out at the Fleming's house. Card games, sleep overs and roaming Cleveland Heights. We all said we would meet up in 1975. It was 25 years before we met up. He and his wife visited my home in Carrollton Texas. Years passed again his family helped make it my trip to Germany where my son was stationed. Thank you so much. Keeping in touch was hard. I am just learning of his death today. Heartbroken. Wish I had known sooner. God bless you Chuck. You will always be in my heart.
