

Charles William Hey Sr.

November 17, 2010

Charles (Bill) William Hey, Sr. was called home to the Lord on Tuesday, November 17, 2010 in Houston, TX. He was born on Jan. 6, 1933 to Charles E. and Marie H. Hey in Philadelphia, Penn. After Bill graduated from high school, he worked for Honeywell before joining the Air Force in which he was awarded an Honorable discharge. He then married Joyce E. Becker on July 6, 1957 and began a career as a computer technician until his retirement with Unisys in 1987. Bill's big and giving heart was noticed by family and friends alike as he never met a stranger. He spent most of his retirement spending loving moments with his wife, doing geneology research on family with his daughter, and building projects with his son and grandson. His children are Elise Hope Hey Antoon and husband James Antoon of Baton Rouge, LA., and Charles W. Hey, Jr. and wife Rachel of Magnolia, TX. His grandson is Charles William Hey, III and girlfriend Kelly Husfield of Magnolia, TX. His step-grandchildren are: Rachel Myers, Chris, Emily, and Logan Dowell, Natalee and Annalee Antoon. Friends and loving caregivers were Marilyn Myers and Lori Meridith. Pallbearers are Doug Hillegeist, Paul Vaughn, Jeff Kirk, Jeff Kubecka, Chris Dowell, and Eugene Meyer. Service will be at his church of over 50 years , St. Matthew Lutheran Church of Westfield. 21434 E. Hardy Rd., Houston, TX 77073. Visitation will be at 9:00 am at church before the church service begins at 10:00 am. Donations to be made to St. Matthew Lutheran Technology Fund or the North Oaks Baptist Church, The Gideons, or Lottie Moon foundation.

The Addison family and staff of Addison Funeral Home extend our condolences to the Hey family in their time of loss.
