

Charles Rumfolo Sr.

July 29, 2012

Charles Joseph Rumfolo Sr. was born in Houston, Texas. He grew up in the Tomball area, where he met and married the first love of his life, Bonita Whitehead. Together they had four beautiful children. His children were his greatest source of pride.

Charles would often say “My children are the best thing I have ever done”. He was gifted in many areas, but he is most remembered as the man who could fix anything. He was an accomplished carpenter and builder. He loved working with his hands. He studied Martial arts and taught himself to play the guitar. He loved music and was quick to play you a tune or sing you a song, just to make you smile. He loved to fish and spent many happy times fishing with his family and friends. He could catch fish in any circumstance and was very skilled making bobbers and lures by hand. He had a deep admiration for nature and loved spending time outdoors. Later in life he met Katherine Ebarb, his second love and best friend, and they spent many happy years together. Charles will be deeply missed and is very much loved by his family and all who knew him.

The Addison staff and family extend our heartfelt condolences to the Rumfolo family in their time of loss.

“ In Memory Of My Brother

Blossoms fall obscurely to their demise

*They saunter
on the wind
and bend*

*the ears of those
both young and wise*

*and speak of glory
lost and gained*

*of morning mists
and of rain*

*of spring spent
and summer's rep*

“ My brother Charles was a man for all seasons. A good listener when you needed someone to talk to, a good talker when you needed a good story to stir your heart. He was handy, boy was he a good guy to know when you had a project that needed an extra hand
