“ I love you and this Audrey Shaikh and you were my Mamaw and I loved you very much. I know I never got to see you much even my little sister, Josey Shaikh, she never got to see you much cause how little she was. I've always wanted to spend more time with you but I'm sorry I never did, and now its to late to try again. I know you are still with us, I just wish I could see you but sometimes I imagine you're right there by my side holding me and saying I love you. I love you so much and I'm so sad that you passed on, but the lord told you to come see him next and your special cause he chose you. I love you Mamaw and I'll always remember you in my heart I love you

Love,
AUDREY SHAIKH

“ Good morning, Sis.

This still seems like a bad dream for us but for you it is a life of eternity for which we praise God !!

When I spoke at your service I felt like there were so many missing words of love but I had to stop talking somewhere because I k
