

Cindy S Williams

August 2, 2013

Cynthia "Cindy" Sharon Bailey Williams, 50, of Conroe, Texas passed away peacefully at home surrounded by her family. She was born on June 27, 1963 in San Antonio, Texas to Earnest and Sharon Bailey.

Cynthia Williams was a passionate and caring mother of two and a wife to Steve for 27 wonderful years. Though she was a busy mom she always made time to take part in the praise teams at Oak Ridge North Church of Christ, Spring Woodlands Church of Christ and Grace Crossing Church for many years. She had a natural love and skill when it came to the care and teaching of toddlers and infants at those congregations and was loved by all children.

There are quite a few things that will always be remembered about Cindy. She had a genuine love and compassion for all of God's creations and would go out of her way to help them no matter how big or small even stopping to help a snake get off of a busy road. Her smile and her laugh were infectious spreading and lighting up any room that she entered. Because of her generous heart she also became known for her culinary skills, never failing to impress with what ever food she prepared and was always generous and eager when it came to sharing recipes and tips. Her love for Jesus and her angelic singing voice are only two of the reasons that we can be sure that she is singing with the heavenly hosts and has found her place in Jesus' arms.

Cindy is preceded in death by her mother, Sharon Bailey. She is survived by her loving husband Steve Williams; children, Benjamin Williams and Alexis Williams; father, Earnest L. Bailey; brother, John Bailey and wife Kelly Dean-Bailey; nieces, Maggie Bailey and Maizie Bailey; aunt, Joan Klundt and husband Roland; uncle, Jack Hicks and wife Linda; numerous more relatives and close friends.

The Addison Family and staff at Addison Funeral Home extend their condolences to Cindy's family.

“ I met Cindy when we were in elementary school and we ended up college roommates. Even though we lost touch, I still thought of her as my good friend and roommate. I was sad to hear of her illness, and sadder to hear of her passing. My thoughts and pray

“ Tim and I are deeply sadden by Cindy's passing. Cindy wad a kind and gentle soul who did not deserve to suffering she endured in her earthly life. But God is so good and I know He has reserved a special place for her in her eternal life.
