

Courtney Nicole Sexton

July 19, 2006 - December 30, 2024

Courtney Nicole Sexton was born on July 19, 2006 to Shannon Marie Houston and Jerry Lee Sexton in Fresno, California. Courtney passed away on December 30, 2024 in Houston, Texas at 18 years old.

Courtney graduated from Atascocita High School and received many awards, such as the Daughters of the American Revolution Award, Perfect Attendance and Academic Excellence in both RELA and Science. She was also a devout member of the ROTC. After graduation, Courtney followed her dreams and became PFC Sexton with the United States Marine Corps, working as a Basic Aviation Ordnance Marine. Outside of her proud devotion and love for the Marines, Courtney loved to dance, draw, paint, read and sing. She enjoyed watching musicals and was an avid theatre enthusiast; especially when it came to Hamilton. Courtney was a social butterfly. She loved Anime, American History, elephants (mostly) but loved all animals, swimming, spending time at the beach and fashion. Courtney was a force to reckon with and was the best friend that you could ask for. She could keep you laughing and smiling no matter what, and she cared so deeply for the people she loved. She was a loyal friend, loving daughter, sister niece and cousin, devoted Marine and forever “Shorty.”

Courtney is preceded in death by her grandfather, Williams Ardary. She is survived by her mother; Shannon Lorenzo, father; Jerry Sexton (Kristin), grandparents; Steve and Diane Houston, Mark and Patricia Bryant, siblings;

JJ, Isaiah, Kaylee, Jay, Emma, Dominic, Sebastian, Nikolai, Hampton and Kyra, as well as many beloved aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and friends.

“ I used to be friends with Courtney in elementary school until she moved. I always wondered what she was doing after she moved. She was the most sweetest and kind friend I’ve ever had. I remember we’d play at recess together and she’d catch these little millipedes on a leaf and try feeding them little broken up leaves. I really missed her. Rest in peace Courtney❤️🕊️

“ Courtney was such a sweet and funny girl, she was and still is my best friend. We became friends during the pandemic and were glued to the hip since. She was so used to me coming over I'd just welcome myself into her house without even knocking and start making her lunch, which was basically our breakfast since we'd wake up at noon. And since we were highschool kids with and all the free time in the world we'd just find random flowers in the creek behind our apartments and then buy a bunch of snacks at dollar general and eat til we were sick to our stomachs with sugary candy and greasy chips. When I think about her I can't help but smile and laugh a little because that's how she lived her life and that's how I remember her. Every day wether it was good or bad she'd find something to smile and laugh about. I still miss her like crazy and some days feel like I started mourning just yesterday. Nevertheless, I still bring her the sugary drinks and slim Jim's she liked to her grave because even though she passed my memories of her are still very alive.

“ Cortney went to Triple C School in Cayman with my son Gavin. Gavin, was so grateful for his relationship with Cortney. When she migrated back to the US, they lost touch. A few days before her passing, they reconnected. To say Gavin is devastated is an understatement. However, he will always be grateful for her kindness and friendship.

Our heartfelt condolences to all of Cortneys family. We cant imagine the pain. She was a beautiful soul and our hearts ache for your loss. Definitely gone too soon!.

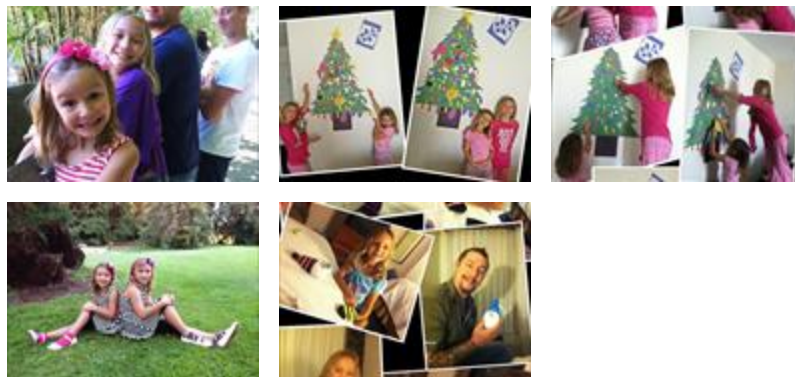

Until we meet again sweetest Cortney. Xoxo. Gavin Turner and Yvette

“ Shorty,
Although it has been some time since we last saw each other, the memories I have of you are vivid and filled with warmth.

I will always remember the moments we shared.

Courtney, you will be deeply missed, but your legacy will live on forever.

Deepest condolences to Shannon, Jerry and the entire family.

“ It's hard to just choose one when we have so many memories.... I love you with more than all my heart. When you left, my world stopped. All the time we shared together is priceless. I was so truly blessed to be your Mother.. You live on in me, and through the memories we created. Please save me a spot next to you in heaven. I won't say goodbye, but until we meet again my sweet child,
