

Craig David Frazier

June 5, 1968 - January 25, 2022

Craig David Frazier was welcomed to this world on June 5, 1968, in Japan, the first-born son of David and Kimiko Frazier. Being in a military family, Craig had rich experiences in many places. As a child in Japan, Craig spent time with family, bonding with his grandparents, uncles, aunts, and cousins. When the family was stationed in Alaska, Hawaii, and Maryland, Craig could be found fishing with his father, cooking with his mother, playing baseball, hanging with friends, and looking out for his brothers. During this period of Craig's life, he attended church with his family regularly, and accepted Christ in his heart.

As a man, Craig had many professions. In Baltimore, New York, and Washington D.C., Craig worked as a litigation support manager. In Atlanta and Houston, Craig worked in restaurant management and retail management. Craig was an extremely hard worker and sacrificed much to contribute to the success of the people he worked with. In his later years, Craig's ailments prevented him from such committed endeavors, yet he remained productive by driving trucks and cooking plates for anxiously awaiting customers. Craig had many friends and family members and was beloved by all. Craig would give you the shirt off his back. He was once described as "never having met a stranger". Fiercely loyal, he would always be there for you in your time of need. Morally based, he would tell it to you straight. Open and expressive, his laughter would lift your heart.

Craig spent his final years doing the things he loved - cooking for his friends and family, wetting a line hoping to land a “big one”, and cuddling with his dogs. Craig was a “die-hard” Washington Redskins fan and stuck with them his whole life. Craig also enjoyed gardening and showed great passion in cultivating his own food.

On Tuesday, January 25, 2022, Craig, age 53, suddenly left this world to join Our Lord and family in the next life. Craig suffered many ailments in the last third of his life. He was a tough man and did not want to trouble anyone with his condition. He was preceded in death by his father, David M. Frazier, his mother, Kimiko Frazier, his paternal grandfather, Morris Frazier, his paternal grandmother, Mary Frazier, his maternal grandfather, “Ojisan”, and his maternal grandmother, “Obachan”.

Craig is survived by and will forever be in the memory of his three sons, Kenneth, Jordan, and Javier, his grandchildren, Allison and Alexander, his brothers, Ray, Stephen, and Matthew, his long-time partner, Laura, and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ I first saw Craig and his little brother Ray as they departed a very big air plane in Columbus, Ohio with their parents. I hadn't seen my brother for several years as he had been stationed in the Air Force in Japan. He came back to us with a wife (Kimiko) and two adorable little boys.

Craig went on to live many other places before he became an adult. He lived in Japan, Ohio, Alaska, Hawaii, South Carolina and Maryland before he graduated High school. He also acquired two more brothers in that time. Craig was big brother to Ray, Stephen and Matthew. They all have always remained very close and true. I am so proud to be their Aunt.

Rest in peace, Craig David Frazier, you were loved and we will see you again.

*Love,
Aunt Brenda & Uncle Tom Flood*

“ Craig and I met in high school in 1985. Craig was a senior and I was a junior. We both lived on Andrews Airforce base a few blocks away from each other. I was was a good student but was also quiet and introverted.. Craig was much more outgoing and social . I admired his confidence and being around him really helped bring me out of my shell.

Before our friendship, Craig and I sat next to each other in Precalculus class. Somewhere in discussion he found out I played tennis and challenged me to a match .. I think he was just egging me on so we could get to know each other (but he was more than a little competitive). We met up and played and quickly became friends .. I started to attend church with with Craig and his family on Wednesday nights and found myself frequently at the Frazier home where I was always made to feel welcome and often fed dinner. The Frazier house became my second home.

Thank you Craig .

Craig introduced me to my wife Jemcy. The two of them were already friends. He arranged for us to play some doubles tennis. I give him full credit for setting us up .. I would likely never have had the courage to approach Jemcy on my own. We were married in 1989 on Andrews. Craig was my best man. Jemcy and I have been married for 33 years now.

Thank you Craig...

After our wedding , Jemcy and I lived in Florida while Craig remained in Maryland. We both moved many times over the next several decades. Pre- internet and cell phones, staying connected was much more difficult than it is today. Somehow we managed to always find a way to keep up with one another. In the mid 90s, I remember Craig coming to visit Jemcy and I in Plattsburgh NY. We spent a week or so fishing at about a dozen places across the Adirondacks. By this time, Jemcy and I had 3 children and all of them loved their Uncle Craig. That time with Craig was awesome and created some of my fondest memories.

Thank you Craig.

In 2002 Craig came to live with Jemcy and I in Atlanta and he went to work for Walmart where I was managing a store. It was a particularly challenging store and it was awesome to have him working along side me every day. His brother Matt even joined us for a period . Having someone with awesome work ethic and that I could trust completely working with me was invaluable and really helped make the job enjoyable.

Thank you Craig ..

The last time Craig and I spent time together in person was in 2018 when my youngest son got married . Craig made the trip to Arkansas to celebrate with us. Craig and I had the opportunity to catch up. Craig spoke with such enthusiasm about Laura and his sons .. I could tell that he had purpose and joy in his life . It was an awesome weekend and having him with us was such a gift to our family.

Thank you Craig.

Craig was my best friend..

He was passionate

He was caring

He was kind

He was generous

He was loyal..

He loved his brothers and his extended family.. and they loved him.

Craig ,

I will miss you dearly but am so grateful for our friendship and look forward to seeing you again my friend.. I love you Brother
