“ To my loving family.

Don't cry because it's over. Smile because it happened." "Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow." "If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane, I'd walk right up to heaven and bring her home again "

Love you all

“ Lord, we know that You are the God who comforts us. I pray that You provide a time of comfort and rest for those whose hearts are hurting right now. Hold them in Your embrace, Father. Wrap them in Your love and remind them that though they may have lost someone dear, they are not alone, for You are with them. Please keep Brian and Valerie and the rest of the family in your prayers today as we lay Cyndi to rest. Thank you for all the love and support.

“ Cyndi's greatest achievement has and will always be her kids. She loves them so much. Ends and outs, ups and downs, they knew they were always loved! Then when she became a grandmother, she was over the moon! I hope they always know Grandma will always be looking over them all. ”

“ One thing Cyndi felt very strongly about was education!!! She always said you're never too young or too old to learn. She loved buying reading to the kids. From graduating from high school to getting her masters, she never stopped her education! She was an inspiration to all of us! Elyssa and Brian have both followed in her foot steps, both also achieving a masters degree. I remember how excited she was when she found out. NEVER STOP LEARNING!

“ This was the last time I did Cyndi's hair. She is such a beautiful lady!!! She came in my life when I was very young!! She taught me things that changed my life. I could always go to her and talk to her about anything. She taught me how to care for my body as a young lady and as a young mother. We have connected in ways that I have never connected with anyone before. She taught me how to sew when we made my wedding dress together. HAND SEWING over 2000 pearls. I could go on and on and on about her. I just can't believe she is gone. We will be dancing with you again soon, until then..... watch over us your work here is done. Love you. RIP 01/20/2024
