June 13, 2014

Daisy Ozelle Lindsey, passed away Friday, June 13, 2014 at the age of 86. She was born on March 26, 1928 to Walter Bural and Lilly Corine Black in Ecu, Mississippi. Daisy loved music and singing. She had a green thumb and especially loved to grow African Violets and grew them better than anyone. She enjoyed swimming whenever she was able to. Daisy was an avid crotchetier and even tried to teach some of her daughters but they never could do it as well as her. She was Valedictorian of her high school class. In her small hometown of Randolph, MS she was crowned Miss Randolph. Daisy worked for over 12 years as a typesetter for the Pontotoc Progress Newspaper in Pontotoc, Mississippi. As the only typesetter, she typed every word in the newspaper, typing well over 100 words per minute. She was an active member of First Baptist Church in Pontotoc where she sang in the choir. When it comes to Southern Charm, she had it all; always mindful of her manners and doing the right thing.

Daisy is preceded in death by her parents, Walter and Lilly Black; brother, John Melvin Black; and daughter, Karen June Lewis Purcell. She is survived by her daughters, Barbara Reeder of Blue Springs, MS, Lisa Jackson of Spring, TX, and Donna Cahill of The Woodlands, TX; grandchildren, Yvette Benson, Donna Claymore, Stephanie Reeder, Chris Reeder, Joshua Rucker, Jennifer Austin, Sean Cahill, and Shannon Cahill; 6 great-grandchildren; brother, Glendon Black of Saltillo, MS; and numerous other relatives and friends.

“ I never had the privilege of meeting Miss Daisy, I only knew her through the wonderful stories her daughter Lisa (whom I work with) would tell me. The stories were priceless and you could tell she was really loved. She will be missed but never forgotten.

“ Nanie was my grandmother. She called me Michele. She was so beautiful and elegant in my childhood memories.

Her complexion was so amazingly beautiful. She would turn away when you tried to give her a great big Southern Style Kiss... right on the mouth!
