“ We met Dan and Catalina in Bucharest, Romania in 1993. We were happy to hear that Dan and his family got a visa to come to the United States. Dan was so excited he forgot about time zones and we received a fax from him at 4 AM. We now live in the Baltimore, Maryland area, but have been able to stay in contact and visit with Dan & Catalina for all of these years.

We will miss him!

“Dan will be missed by all that worked with him at ExxonMobil Research and Engineering and the Catalyst & Licensing Global Business Unit. C.S. Lewis wrote about friendship that is a testimonial to Dan's life.

“But in Friendship, being free of all that, we think we have chosen our peers. In reality, a few years' difference in the dates of our births, a few more miles between certain houses, the choice of one university instead of another, posting to different regiments, the accident of a topic being raised or not raised at a first meeting—any of these chances might have kept us apart. But, for a Christian, there are, strictly speaking, no chances.

A secret Master of the Ceremonies has been at work. Christ, who said to the disciples "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you," can truly say to every group of Christian friends "You have not chosen one another but I have chosen you for one another."

The Friendship is not a reward for our discrimination and good taste in finding one another out. It is the instrument by which God reveals to each the beauties of all the others. They are no greater than the beauties of a thousand other men; by Friendship God opens our eyes to them. They are, like all beauties, derived from Him, and then, in a good Friendship, increased by Him through the Friendship itself, so that it is His instrument for creating as well as for revealing.”

— C.S. Lewis, The Four Loves
