

Daniel James Fausnight

May 23, 1986 - September 25, 2024

Daniel James Fausnight, age 38, passed away on September 25th, 2024, in Spring, Texas. Dan was born on May 23rd, 1986, in Canton, Ohio. He graduated from Klein Oak High School in Spring, Texas in 2004 and then completed his MBA at the University of Houston in 2009. Dan spent much of his career with Kroger in the Spring area.

Dan was a kind, quiet person who preferred not to be the center of attention. He was unassuming and gentle, but made sure to always help other people feel comfortable and made sure that others felt as though they fit in. He never demanded anything of anyone.

He was always very helpful and would look for ways to help others whenever possible; even volunteering his time working to support hurricane victims.

Daniel was also an avid sports fan; he enjoyed watching the Astros and the Texans, but he especially loved soccer and held season tickets for both the Houston Dynamo and Houston Dash. In his spare time he loved gaming with his friends and read extensively; he particularly enjoyed science fiction and Harry Potter. Above all else, Dan deeply loved all of the people he shared his life with.

Daniel is survived by his parents, Ronald and Ann Fausnight; his Brother, David Fausnight (and his partner Jennifer Clark); Sister, Elizabeth Diamond (and her husband Noah Diamond); Niece Beatrix; Nephew Asa; Grandmother Sara Campbell Fausnight; Grandfather Ronald Fausnight Sr., and many loving Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins - especially Ben.

He was preceded in death by his Grandmother, Bernice Richards;
Grandfather Charles Ralph Richards; Uncle Wayne Richards; and Cousins,
