“ I will always love and remember Daveda as the intuitive, sensitive and beautiful soul I've known since my youth. Having her steady friendship during those crazy teenage years is a gift I treasure forever. Love and comfort to Alice, David, family & friends ~ Missy Fountain Collette

“ Life is so fluid. Like a River, it can flow slowly or quickly but As it passes through on its natural journey we get to experience its wonder and beauty. While I’m sad that she flowed through so quickly, I’m forever grateful to have experienced a part of her journey. ”

“ Daveda was a courageous person who did not give up. I dedicate this poem in celebration of her life.

RISE

by Sagar Yadav

*I will rise
After every fall.
I will rise
And stand tall.*

*I will rise
Over the wall.
I will rise
Above them all.*

*Like the sun,
Which never dies.
Though sets every night,
Every day it does rise.*

*Like the ocean
Whose tides
Many times they are down,
But invariably they rise.*

*Like the trees,
From seeds they arise,
And heights great
They rise and rise.*

*After falling once,
Twice and thrice,
Again and again
I will rise and rise.*

*I will rise
After every fall.
After every fall
I will rise.*

“ I remember fun summers spent in Houston, visiting Uncle David and Aunt Alice and Daveda, Miranda and Jason. Those visits were such a fun part of my childhood. Daveda was always always so nice, sometimes quiet, and Erika and I really looked up to her. I'm so sorry for your loss. Sending love, Jeremy “ Alice, David and family, my condolences. I am utterly heartbroken that the greatest friend of my youth has passed. Having grown up with Daveda in junior high and high school I am truly blessed to have known her. Beautiful young lady that had a positive attitude with a wonderful disposition. So many memories of times with her and the Stoke family that simply can be described as joyful. I am thankful to have had a chance to speak to Daveda of faith and hope in Christ. I pray she may be at peace in the heavenly arms of our Lord. – Jim Cannon...Jimmy

“ I am legally blind and I have to use Google Voice to text to compose this. My first message disappeared when I went to send it so I'm going to try this again.

Daveda has been one of my three best friends. We've been friends for almost 40 years now. We've known each other since high school and I was heartbroken to find out what had happened when I got home from being in the hospital myself this week. I still can't believe it and I'm still unbelievably sad and numbed by her passing.

Daveda was always the most unique and kind girl I knew. Ever since the very early 1980s when we met and became friends, I have thought she has stood out so much compared to other girls her age. She's always been beautiful but yet she's always not thought so and been very down to earth. She definitely didn't let things go to her head and she was the most normal, and non assuming friend a person could possibly wish for. I always told her that she was a one in a million girl just in the way she acted and treated people. And she always was.

I can think of tons of stories that would be entertaining or maybe interesting to someone here. But what I want to say is just how much I respect and love the friend I have had throughout my life with Daveda.

Daveda always seem to put others first. She knew the true meaning of being an unconditional friend that did not base friendships, loves, etc off of what other people did or didn't do. If you were her friend, she was going to stand by you no matter what and even if you were wrong. She'd stand by you but she'd make sure you got yourself straightened out too and didn't remain in the wrong. She never just joined into the crowd because it was popular. She based her friends on how they treated her and how they all got along. And it led to a great group of friends growing up just being one of Davida's friends.

She never seemed to judge people like most of us seem to always do. A lot of people talk about what they would do in this situation or that. She didn't really talk about it, she just did it. She put others in front of her herself so many times that I had seen in life that I knew it was really her and it wasn't an act.

We have had so many great times through the years, and there have been times where things weren't great too. But Daveda always remained a true friend. And she never really asked for anything in return. In fact it was kind of hard to get her to take anything including favors just saying thanks for something she did. Daveda is by far one of the most unique and special girls I've ever known and I loved her for that.

Daveda, I will miss you, I will always love you, and I will be eternally thankful for the friendship we had each day of the rest of my life. You were such a strong and emotional friend to me that there would be no way I could not think of you each day. I want to remember you and the special person you were. You will never be forgotten and I'm sorry that your time came so early. You will be dearly missed.

Hopefully this message won't disappear when I go to send it and I'll get a chance to proofread it.

Good night my dear friend DRS222. Sleep peacefully knowing that there are those left behind that will carry on your memory in their hearts and never forget. I love you Daveda, my dearest friend, and memories remain! Thank you for the years of knowing how special and great you were and being your friend Daveda ☐
