

David Villarreal

April 17, 2014

David Villarreal, 51, passed away Thursday, April 17, 2014. He courageously fought a series of health battles throughout his life but his support for others never waned. David was born on May 28, 1962 to Adam and Maria Villarreal in Midland, Texas and spent most of his life working and fulfilling his calling as a dad. He is preceded in death by his parents, Adam and Maria and is survived by his daughter, Shelby Martin. David led his life encouraging others by not letting the trials he faced get him down. He was known for his bright spirit and contagious happiness. "A life is not important except the impact it has on other lives". David's life was impactful because of the family and friends he lifted up and his dedication as a loving father. He left Midland a better place and will be missed in his hometown. David's endearing qualities and smile will never be forgotten. Memorial Services will take place on Tuesday, April 22, 2014 at Ellis Funeral Home at 4:00 p.m.

The Addison family and staff extend our heartfelt condolences to the Villarreal family in their time of loss.
