

Deborah Jan Schonauer

June 24, 1953 - November 4, 2020

Deborah Jan Cook Schonauer (Debbie) was called to Heaven before dawn Wednesday, November 4th, 2020.

Debbie was born June 24, 1953 in Ohio and in 1982 married Thomas Robert Schonauer and both headed to Texas to start their lives together.

Debbie is preceded in death by her Father, Albert Wesley Schonauer, Mother, Evelyn Cook and Brother, William Thomas Cook.

Debbie is survived by her loving husband Thomas Robert Schonauer and children, Wesley Thomas Schonauer and wife Summer, and Lauren Elizabeth Schonauer; Brother, John Cook and wife Pat and sister, Judy Cook and husband Donny; Grandchildren Amara and Koen Schonauer and Chloe Crenshaw. In addition, Barbie Cook, widow of William Cook. Also, to be acknowledged are her numerous nieces and nephews.

Debbie was an incredibly thoughtful, generous and loving person. She saw the good in every situation and the beauty in everything around her. Being a wife and mother was her greatest joy in life and being a Mimi only amplified that love. She cherished her family above all. She showed unconditional love and support to all that knew her. Debbie had a way to make everyone she met feel loved and special. She was the glue not only for her family but for so many around her. Her presence will be felt and missed by all that knew her. To know Debbie was to know love.

Debbie's long career in substance abuse counseling allowed so many to find hope in recovery. Her compassion and love for others saved so many lives and healed many hearts. We will always hold Debbie close to our hearts and will be forever grateful for our time with her.

Debbie, your faith that placed you in God's hands will serve as strength and serenity for all of us who will miss you every day.

In lieu of flowers, Passages was her second home and her greatest passion. If you would like to donate to the memorial they will have for Debbie and the facility, we would love that.

I was one of Debbie's lost souls at Rogers Street. She saved my sanity and sobriety almost 37 years ago. She later became a close friend and even hosted my bridal shower. She was a kind, giving person who loved me long before I believed I was lovable! She taught me about serenity and was one of the few with the courage to confront me even when I felt vulnerable. She later was my boss at Rogers Street and Passages. I know she is greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

“ *My dear friend Debbie,
You always knew how to make time fun. Meeting you through our sweet daughters was a blessing. I will never forget our trip to your family beach house; you taught me how to find sea glass. God love you and keep you.*

“ Debbie was a good friend and referred the three of us (Laury, Debbie and myself) as the three Musketeers! The three of us were best of friends and enjoyed road trips, jewelry shows, but she was the original Mrs. Santa Claus. She loved Christmas, family and friends. We all know she would do anything for her family and friends. She was always there with a cake on birthdays for us. I know she is her family that departed before her but those who love her will miss her greatly. Till we meet again my friend!
