

Denis Lexie Thornton

May 15, 1978 - January 31, 2025

Denis Lexie Thornton passed away peacefully on January 31, 2025. Denis was born on May 15, 1978, at Fitzsimons Army Hospital in Denver Colorado. Growing up he loved playing in the little league soccer and baseball. He grew up with just his mother, Melody, until she remarried William, who became an amazing father and role model to Denis. He loved travelling with his mom and dad, and they took him to see so much of the world. Denis Received his GED and then went on to graduate from Westwood where he studied aviation mechanics. After that, he accepted a job in Oregon where he met his soon to be wife, Amanda, and her two young kids, Mckenna and Skylar. They all lived in Medford, Oregon for a couple years until they decided to move to Denver, Colorado. In Denver, they decided to get married in Las Vegas and got pregnant with their son, Gavin. He came into the world in 2007. In 2009, he accepted a position at FMC that was located all the way in Texas. Denis and his family moved down to Houston, Texas and have stayed there ever since. Denis started his job off the Gulf of Mexico in Louisiana, eventually getting promoted to work offshores in places like Israel, Holland, Ghana, Nigeria, etc. Denis spent most of his FMC days in Nigeria. Denis and his family spent time traveling, throwing neighborhood parties, and making many wonderful friends. Denis began working on his college degree with Colorado State University-Global Campus. In 2019, he became a member of the Golden Key International Honor Society. On May 14, 2023, he graduated with a Bachelor's degree in science. He is preceded in death by his great grandparents and his grandfather, Lexie Ramsey. He is survived by his wife, Amanda; his children, Gavin, Skylar and Mckenna; his parents, Melody and William; and his grandmother Beverly Ramsey.
