

Diane Woods

August 25, 2017

Diane Woods, 74, passed away Friday, August 25, 2017 after fighting a short but fierce battle with pancreatic cancer. Diane was born on March 6, 1943, in Chicago, Illinois, to the late Mary and Bernard Jackson. Diane attended St. Cloud State College in Minnesota. Shortly after marriage, she relocated to Houston, Texas with her late husband Robert Woods and 3 children where they became Texans with a Chicago Heart. Diane was an active volunteer in her community including housing the homeless at Resurrection, PTO President to After Prom Chairperson in the kids schools and Northwest Assistance Ministries (NAM) among countless others. She was a talented florist and after the kids were grown, started a floral business and went on to work at Randall's bringing beautiful flowers and great conversation to the community.

Diane cherished her entire family and spent every chance she could with them, whether that was traveling the world with her husband and kids as they went on adventures to Costa Rica, Hawaii, New Zealand, and Greece to family trips to Chicago to attending every life celebration she was able.

She is survived by her brother, David Jackson, children Chris Woods, Jason Woods and Amanda Polich, grandchildren Jackson Woods, Grace

Woods, Jacob Woods, Kristen Polich and Michelle Polich, and great-grandchild Celia Polich. Services will be held at Resurrection Lutheran Church at 1612 Meadow Edge Lane at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, September 8th with a brief committal at 2 p.m. at Klein Memorial Park at 32539 SH 249 Pinehurst, Texas 77362
