

Dudley Deville

July 2, 1931 - March 4, 2022

Dudley was born in Ville Platte, Louisiana during the Great Depression to Sidney Jules Deville and Naice Fontenot Deville. They were share crop farmers in the early days, spoke French at home, and were strong Catholics. They were descendants of French immigrants from Nova Scotia.

Dudley graduated from Ville Platte High School in 1946. He enlisted in the U.S. Air Force that year and after basic training he was assigned to the Aleutian Islands in Alaska. In 1951 he met Margarita Ramirez while serving in Puerto Rico. They married in 1952 and he always said that 'she was the flower of Puerto Rico.' When they returned to the states in 1955, he attended SLI in Lafayette, Louisiana and graduated in 1958 with a degree in Chemical Engineering.

He went to work for Olin Mathesson Chemicals in Lake Charles, Louisiana and worked as a Chemical Engineer in a variety of industries over the next 35 years. He enjoyed deep sea fishing, golf, and was a wonderful chef. He especially enjoyed cooking gumbo. He loved his garden and growing tomatoes was his specialty.

He is preceded in death by two of his sisters, Esa Deville (Esling), and Joy Oge (Andrew), and one grandson, Joseph Walker. He is survived by his wife of almost seventy years, Margarita; his five children, eleven grandchildren, and four great grandchildren. Susan Gieske (Eliesa Wright, Rachelle Gieske); Grace Walker (Joe); Joseph Anthony (Claire Kline, Ashley, Alex); Mary Cochrane (Roderick) (Ariana); Vivian Brown (Darby) (Shelby, Hayes, Clara Rose, Eleanor); His great grandchildren; Addison, Kirk, Cheyenne, and Charlotte Rose; His sisters, Cecil Vizinat (Neil) and Lee Anna Guillory (Doward) and many nieces and nephews.
