

E. Dennis Nelson

March 19, 2015

Dennis Nelson passed away in Houston, Texas on March 19th 2015 from complications associated with recent heart surgeries. Dennis was born on January 13th 1958, in Lenoir, North Carolina, to Larkin and Mildred Nelson.

Dennis graduated from The University of North Carolina-Wilmington with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Geology. He worked in the Oil and Gas Service Industry as a Business Development Manager for Baker Hughes, Weatherford, Downhole Devices, and Cougar Directional Services.

As an avid bass fisherman, Dennis was a long time member of the Texas State Bass Federation, and his bass club, The Houston Oilmen's Bass Club, where he competed as recently as February of this year. Whether it was actually fishing for fun at a local pond, competing, working on his boat, designing new prototype baits, Dennis was constantly tinkering in his man cave for that little extra edge in pursuing the elusive Large Mouth Bass state record.

Dennis is survived by his loving wife, Monica Zamudio. Sister Mary Beth Nelson Benfield and husband Pat Benfield and their children Emily and Will, Brother Hugh Nelson and his wife Patty and their son Todd, Brother Neal Nelson and his wife Sandra and their children Kelsey and Allie. He is also survived by two step daughters Leslie Linscomb her children, Alexis Defoe and Evan Weaver, Lindsey Linscomb and her daughter Elle Linscomb.

His loving In-laws Pauline and Julian Zamudio, brother in law Julian and Heidi

Zamudio, and their children Bianca, Bailey Brie, John, Ian, Brennan and Erin, sister in law Leslie and Dan Hart and their children Gabby, Sydney Hart and Derek Robinson.
