

Elizabeth "Jane" Hodnefield

December 29, 1960 - August 7, 2023

Elizabeth Jane Hodnefield "Jane" of Spring, TX was called home on August 7, 2023 in The Woodlands, TX. She was a loving wife, daughter and sister. Jane was born on December 29, 1960 in Ottawa, Kansas to Howard and Millie Garrison.

Jane's family moved to Topeka, KS in 1972, where Jane went on to graduate from Seaman High School. Jane attended Washburn University in Topeka, where she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. Jane also attended Emporia State University, in Emporia, KS, and North Harris County College (Now Lone Star College) in Houston, TX.

Jane married Eric Hodnefield on August 6, 1983 in Topeka. They went on to spend the next 40 years together in Emporia, Houston, and ultimately, Spring, TX. Jane was a kind and loving person. She was a collector of whatever happened to strike her fancy at the time, with no regard to value, only what she liked. She loved all (almost) animals, but cats were definitely at the top of her list. Jane also loved music, and could listen to Barry Manilow for hours.

Jane is survived by her husband Eric of Spring, sister Maridee Johnson of Lee's Summit, MO, and sister Gail (Paul) Willson of Little Elm, TX. Jane was preceded in death by her parents Howard and Millie Garrison, her brother Lee Garrison, and her sister, Mollie Watkins.
