Ellen Dale Forwood Ford, age 76, passed peacefully into the Lord's tender care on Saturday, September 13, 2014 at her home in Spring, Texas. Known as one to whom none was a stranger, Ellen leaves behind a legacy of compassion, caring and service to those around. Her loving heart and empathetic way will be missed by many.

Ellen was a gift to her earthly parents, Bernard Edward Eric Forwood and Myrtle Jenkin Forwood, on Father's Day, June 19, 1938, in Anaconda, Montana. Eric Forwood was the long-time projectionist at the Bluebird and Washoe Theatres in Anaconda.

Ellen devoted her life and many talents to the care and nurturing of her children and grandchildren who retain a legacy of compassion and love. Others were the beneficiaries as well, as Ellen put her talents and creative energy to work on many a wedding, shower, anniversary or other important occasion. Her legendary letters and cards brightened the soul and spirit of countless individuals.

Ellen is predeceased by her parents, Eric and Myrtle Forwood; her elder brother, Edward Leroy Forwood of Anaconda, who passed away on May 31, 2014; and her son, Edward Larry Ford.
