

Ethel La Verne Voigt

February 28, 2015

Ethel La Verne (Collingwood) Voigt, born August 6, 1942 to La Verne and Cecil Collingwood at her grandparents home in rural Williamsburg, IA. Baptized and confirmed at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Williamsburg, IA. On February 17th 1962 was united in Holy Matrimony with David John Voigt at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Williamsburg, IA. Ethel is survived by her loving husband, David Voigt; two children, Sharon Rupard of North English, IA and Steven Voigt (wife Christine) of Bowling Green, KY; four grandchildren, Joey Stancil, Jr. (wife Linda) of KY, Sabrina Hood (husband Scott) of KY, Rhea Rupard of Winston Salem, NC, and Amanda Oroszco of North English, IA; three great-grandchildren, Alonna and Derek Hood and Connor Rupard, all of KY.

Ethel played basketball for her high school team (the Parnell Shamrocks). She attended Cedar Rapids Business School taking accounting courses. She was a fan of the Astros and Broncos and an avid bowler. She loved to cook and try new recipes and to travel having visited Malaya, Singapore, Hong Kong, and Japan plus several Caribbean countries.

Ethel had a strong faith and her favorite expression was "the Lord won't give me more than I can handle" and always answered "fine" when asked how she was doing. She will be greatly missed by all those who knew her.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations may be made to Resurrection Lutheran Church Building Fund.
