“ Dad
You will always be an angel on our shoulders--- guiding us to be the best we can be, as you did every single day on earth,
and now without any earthly boundary, hindrance, pain or physical

with love always

“ I will always remember the enthusiasm with which Gene (and Shirley) welcomed me into the family when Earl and Jane were married and the love Gene lavished on the grandsons (Jacob and Nick)that we share in common.

“ Dear Angela, Mary, Tad, Babette, and Jane,

*The Broussard and DeWree families go back ***a long way together*** (37 years to 1978, in fact!), and we fondly remember your dad (and mom, too!), the good times we shared (progressive Thanksgiving Dinners!),*

“ I saw this poem and thought it expressed my thoughts of my dad...
“I believe that what we become depends on what our fathers teach us at odd moments, when they aren't trying to teach us. We are formed by little scraps of wisdom.”
