

Fannie Ann Allison-Cook

October 31, 1946 - October 20, 2020

Fannie Ann Allison-Cook, age 73, passed away peacefully October 20, 2020 due to cardiac arrest following hip replacement surgery. She was born October 31, 1946 in Danville, Virginia to Russell Dowdy and Victoria Meeks.

Ann is survived by her husband of 25 years, William A. Cook; son, Randall Allison and his wife Charlotte of Stuart, Florida; daughter, Sonja Rothacker and her husband Dennis of Spring; and grandchildren, Joshua Allison and his wife Melissa; and Nicholas Allison. She loved all of her family deeply.

Ann was an active member of Spring Baptist Church, where she served faithfully in various roles for approximately 38 years. She served as the Outreach Coordinator in the Life Group she hosted alongside her husband, as well as cared for the members of the Singing Hearts senior adult choir. She also served the families of Spring Baptist by assisting with the children's choir. She was very dedicated to assisting those in her church and in her life in any way that she could and showed great empathy and compassion for others.

For 15+ years Ann commuted from Spring to downtown Houston where she worked in records management at Shell Oil Company in Houston. She retired in 2009 and spent her remaining years alongside her caring husband serving others. She loved visiting her grandchildren, whom she loved fiercely. When relaxing at home, she enjoyed the Hallmark Channel and Dancing with the Stars.

“ Ann was my closest friend. We had been friends for more than 30+ years. Doesn't seem that long. I didn't see us getting old, but we did.

Ann was divorced and then married Bill. I was married and then divorced. Our children grew into adults. Health issues, retirement, moving, family deaths, and life changes went on. As life evolved our friendship stayed fast.

We meet at Spring Baptist Church. Both of us were involved in Evangelism Explosion. We ended up on the same team and hit it off right away. Ann took a job with Shell and we soon found that we shared working in downtown Houston and taking the park and ride. For many years we meet for a workday lunch.

We shared Bible studies, Sunday School class get togethers, mutual friends, Women's Retreats, a trip to Dallas with Kitty to see Carol who recently moved there, Christmas and birthday celebrations.

My heart is sad that we will no longer have those long talks, celebrations, lunches and that sweet friendship that lasted for so many years.
