“ Frank is 7 yrs older than me, his "baby sister" that hung around him as much as I could when we were growing up. He didn't complain as far as I knew, he made me laugh with his imitations of Jerry Lewis, Dean Martin, & all the jokes he'd come up with, & our personal joke about his cooking for me, "malt-o-meal". I didn't know it, but that was all he knew how to fix, but I loved it. He'd sing, read to me & spent valuable time with his "baby sis". He GAVE people time, whether it was listening, offering advice, reminding us of God's Love. His family was the most important blessing to him, Emily, the Love of his life gave him a son, Frank, his son gave him a daughter, Lori & they gave him the sparkle that lit up his life, his grandson-Shane. There is a celebration as he is met by all of his loved ones in heaven. I Love You Brother. Theresa.
