“ Frank, even though we lived on different coasts, different life styles, different lives, we had the same bond. We were undeniably brothers, thru good times and thru bad times. We shared laughter, sorrow and many good times. I was proud to call you my big brother. You always had my back when we were younger and was only a phone call away.

Time does move awfully fast and it seems like we expect our family members will always be there, a phone call away, but unfortunately that is not the case. If we believe as we were taught, I'll see you again at some point. Until then Frank, know that your were loved and I will certainly be missing you. Love you brother...
