

Garrett Wayne Hueske

June 29, 2014

Garrett Wayne Hueske of Spring, Texas passed away June 29th 2014 at the age of 70. He was born February 27th 1944 in Phoenix, Arizona to Garrett Edward and Margurite Julia Hueske. Garrett is preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his loving wife Susan Moore Hueske and their son Russell Blake Hueske; and daughter Connie and son Garrett "Brad" Hueske from a previous marriage; sister, Norma Jean Godsey and husband Frank and numerous more relatives and friends.

Garrett was above all a proud American. Garrett enjoyed hunting, fishing and all types of outdoor activities. Garrett was a member of the 82nd Airborne when he served his country during the Vietnam conflict. Garrett also gave back to his community as a member of The Masons and The Order of The Knights Templar. Garrett was always the first to arrive and the last to leave at many different functions for his family. Garrett participated in The Adventure Guides, The Memorial Northwest Swim Team and the Klein Bengals with his son Russ. Garrett started a program with the Masons that gifted bikes to school students to celebrate their reading achievements.

Garrett will be sadly missed by the many people whose lives he touched and enriched.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Garrett's passing. I only found out yesterday. My name is Phil Levenseller. Garrett and I were best friends growing up in Washington. Garrett lived in Harper and I lived in Southworth about two miles away. He and I were inseparable as teenagers and into our adulthood. It makes me very sad to hear of his passing and leaves an empty spot in me. We hadn't seen one and other since our late 20's. I hope you are all doing well and please say hello to Norma for me.
