

George Ray Graham

November 26, 2010

George Ray Graham left this world to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on November 26, 2010, after a brief illness. George was born March 10, 1925, in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, and is preceded in death by his father and mother, Anguish Vester Graham and Emma Lois Pond Graham; his brother, A.V. Graham; his sister, Lois Ruth Graham Hill and her husband, Carroll (Jack) Hill; as well as by his former wife Jean.

Survivors include his wife of 39 years, 5 months, Lavada Banks Graham; his daughter and son-in-law, Dorothy (Dot) Beth Harbin Graham and Charles (Chuck) Wingo; and a grandson, Charles Wesley Graham Wingo.

Other survivors include long-time friend and fishing buddy, Chester Louie Plunk; nephews by marriage, Loyal Gino Robinson, David Keith Robinson and Jonathan Thomas Banks; mother-in-law, Sallie L. Banks Brown; brother-in-law Thomas D. Banks and wife, Beverly; sister-in-law, Claudia Robinson Klamert and husband, Richard; plus numerous other family and friends.

George graduated high school in Sumrall, Mississippi, and entered the U.S. Navy, serving as Seaman First Class from Sept. 11, 1942, through May 13, 1946. He then joined Continental Oil Company as a surveyor and permitman; later he became a right-of-way agent for a number of different companies, retiring from Natural Gas Pipeline Company after 12 years of service in 1987 at the age of 62.

George spent his retirement years fishing whenever possible with his long-time friend Louie Plunk and visiting beloved family members and friends.

George never met a stranger, and he will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

Services will be held at 1 PM Monday, November 29, 2010 at Addison Funeral Home with internment in Collins, Mississippi, by Billy King Colonial Funeral Home.

Services in Spring are to be officiated by David Strawn. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Lung Cancer Association or to Vitas Innovative Hospice Care.

The Addison family and staff of Addison Funeral Home extend our condolences to the Graham family in their time of loss.

Tribute Wall

“ George Ray Graham

July 20, 2022 at 05:14 PM

“ Wanda Carter lit a candle in memory of George Ray Graham

Wanda Carter - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ We will miss our friend and family member very much!!! He was always a pleasure to talk with. He had a wonderful sense of humor always laughed at all my jokes. We are very glad Tom got to spend some time with Lavada & George over the summer. Georg

Tom, Jon & Beverly Banks - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ Tom, Jon And Beverly Banks lit a candle in memory of George Ray Graham

Tom, Jon and Beverly Banks - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM