“ My earliest memory of my big brother, Wayne, is him playing his guitar in his room across the hall from mine in our family home in Detroit. I remember often falling asleep to the sounds of him practicing late at night. I clearly remember him asking if I wanted to hear this song that he had learned to play. I remember how excited and proud he was to play it for me! I can still hear his sweet voice and the sound of his guitar. The song was "Dance with Me" by Orleans, No doubt he learned it to impress a girl...

Autumn and Shayne, I'm so sorry for this heartbreaking loss. I'm so proud of both of you for working together to lovingly care for your Dad when he needed you the most. I know he is proud too! You are both so strong and brave! Thank you Kevin for your generosity and the countless ways you helped make our brother feel comfortable. Praying you all find comfort and peace. Will keep you all in my prayers. ~With much love, Aunt Lori

The choices we made caused our lives to move in different directions, but Wayne was never far from my heart and prayers. Rest in peace dear brother. You are remembered with love.

*Shayne and Autumn, Steve and I send our deepest sympathy during this difficult time. Your Dad loved you so much and was so appreciative of your caring moments together. Thank you for watching over him.
Love, Aunt Marianne*
