

George Tiblier

March 26, 1956 - March 18, 2023

George Raymond Tiblier, 66, of Memphis, Tennessee and Houstonian, passed away unexpectedly on March 18, 2023. He was born March, 26, 1956 to Rita and Julian Tiblier.

George, an avid golfer, skilled guitar player, Rolling Stones and Beatles fan, and cigar aficionado is survived by his daughters Jillian Pratho and her husband Dustin, Rachael Tiblier, his son Christopher Tiblier and his wife Meagan, his grandchildren Andrew Tiblier and Cole Tiblier, his brother Thomas Tiblier and his wife Patricia, his brother Timothy Tiblier, and his sister, Carolyn Wyatt.

He is preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Robert Tiblier.

Upon Magna cum Laude graduation from MacArthur High School in Houston, he went on to graduate Summa cum Laude with Honors from The University of Houston, C.T. Bauer College of Business with a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA), Accounting and Finance.

George, ambitious and driven, began his professional career as a tax staff member with Price Waterhouse Management Consultants working his way up to Vice President of the Tax Departments of Cheneire Energy and Energy Transfer before retiring in 2020.

His volunteer activities included coaching and managing his children's competitive and recreational sports teams. Members of Coach George's teams remember his emphasis on teamwork and enthusiasm for the game.

This enthusiasm for the game extended to all Houston sports teams for George, He planned his weekends around attending and watching the U of H Cougars, The Houston Astros, and The Houston Rockets.
