

Gertrude Mary Cuccerre

March 25, 1934 - June 16, 2020

Gertrude Mary Cuccerre, known to all her family as “Gertie” was a high spirited and big-hearted person. She was known for “doing things her way”. Gertie prided herself with the knowledge of her family history and never forgot a birthday or anniversary, she had a fabulous memory. She had a big heart and a great laugh that was infectious. Oh my..... The stories she created were quite entertaining and captured your full attention, they where the best and just when you thought it was coming to Crescendo of the story it just kept getting better. Gertie worked very hard at all her imaginary jobs and loved to share those stories as well. On her personal journey, and throughout her life, she loved the old days. Old movies, old photos, and of course learning all she could about her ancestry. She loved food but had a distaste for anything with the shade of red. Oh and she absolutely adored Elvis and The Lawrence Welk Show. Gertie was compassionate funny and strong willed. She often played by her own rules and we seemed to go ahead with whatever she deemed fit. In her younger years, she took great pride in taking care of her momma and Sharon. Sharon was her best friend throughout her life, they were very close and constantly depended upon one another. She depended on her sister Chris and looked forward to and adored their visits. Sammy was her hero and she loved him dearly. What an amazing gift she shared with those who knew her, to know her was to love her. We will miss you Gertie.

“ I remember as a kid growing up her brother Sam and I were (and still are) best friends so I got to spend the night at their house sometimes. Gertrude was definitely the big sister and she always treated me like little brother! She was always laughing and cutting up, but making sure we behaved like we were supposed to. Later as we grew up, became adults I always looked forward to seeing Gertrude and sister Sharon at Thanksgiving and Christmas times on the few occasions I got to go to Sam's house on those special days. God bless Gertrude Mary Cuccerre. Donnie Baker (Bubby).
