

Gil Gilbert

February 17, 2016

Gilbert Singh Gil passed away on Wednesday, February 17, 2016. He was born in El Paso, Texas on August 8, 1930. He received a degree in Business Administration from the University of North Texas, where he met his wife of 61 years, Patsy Lee Foster Gil, who preceded him in death on January 14, 2016. Although he began his career as a farmer and rancher in West Texas, after earning a Master of Education from the University of Texas at El Paso, he and Patsy became teachers. He served Texas public school students as a teacher and coach, and after earning his Doctor of Education from Texas A & M, Commerce, he spent the greatest part of his career as superintendent of schools. He enjoyed watching the Dallas Cowboys and split his loyalties between the University of Texas Longhorns, where three of his daughters and one granddaughter graduated, and the Texas A&M University Aggies, where two of his grandsons graduated. He was forever a fan of college basketball. He was a devoted member of his church, husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. He is preceded in death by his wife Patsy, his mother, Susie Merino Gil, and father, Gulbant Singh Gil. He is survived by his daughters: Kelli Durham and husband, Alan; PegE Michaud and husband, Robert; Pam Castles and husband, Peter; and Banti K. Gil. His legacy includes his grandsons: Christopher Durham and wife Courtney, and daughter Abigail; Jonathan Durham and wife Carly, and son Carter; and Daniel Michaud; and his granddaughters: Kate Castles and Elissa Castles

Tribute Wall

“ Gil Gilbert

---

July 20, 2022 at 05:14 PM