

Gordon Goettee

March 23, 1940 - October 12, 2022

Gordon Glennon Goettee, 82, of Spring, TX passed away on October 12, 2022 after a 7-year battle with cancer.

Gordon was born on March 23, 1940 in Houston County/Old Shiloh community in Texas to George Goettee & Opal Higginbotham Goettee. He grew up in Houston, TX. Gordon graduated from Reagan High School in Houston, TX and Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, TX where he was a Sigma Chi.

He married Martha Nash on November 21, 1962. They lived in the Spring, TX area of Houston where they raised their five children. Gordon was a developer and home builder in the North Houston area. Over the years, he positively impacted many families by building them a home.

Gordon was loved by everyone who knew him. He was an extremely humble, kind and thoughtful man who was always positive and chose his words carefully. He loved the outdoors. The family has many fond memories of dad/granddad taking them hunting and fishing.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Martha Nash Goettee; children - Nancy Sawyer (husband Brian), Becky De La Cruz (husband Rene), Greg Goettee (wife Linda), Gary Goettee and Linda Goettee; grandchildren – Brad Sawyer, Bethany Sawyer, Garrett Goettee (wife Kelsey), Haley Self (husband Josh), Jake De La Cruz, Kyle De La Cruz and Derek De La Cruz; sister – Linda Bryan (husband David); several nieces and nephews, cousins, and other special people in his life including Aurora Lopez.

Family and friends will have a graveside service on Thursday, October 27th at 10:30 a.m. at Forest Park Westheimer Funeral Home & Cemetery, 12800 Westheimer Rd, Houston, TX 77077. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to MD Anderson at <https://www.mdanderson.org/donors-volunteers/donate/honor-loved-ones>.

No services are currently being held through Addison Funeral Home.
