

Greg LeBlanc

March 1, 2018

Gregory Alan LeBlanc, 60, resident of Jacksonville, Fl. passed 2/24/2018 in Houston, Texas. He was born in Lake Charles, Louisiana December 31, 1957 to Roy and Raye LeBlanc. He is survived by his wife of 32 years, Clara and two sons, Austen and Mason. He is also remembered by his parents, siblings, nieces, nephews & friends.

After college at Louisiana State University he moved to Jacksonville where he married, started a family and formed a dynamic husband-wife team that grew the family operated restaurant, "Tidbits", into a local favorite for the last 32 years.

Greg was humble and shy but never met a stranger. His laugh was infectious. He was quick to come to the aid of friends and family. He was a Master Gardener, civic-minded and made sure that his employees had access to health care decades before government mandates. He was an animal lover, outdoorsman, avid reader, car enthusiast, an intelligent free-thinker who raised chickens in his back yard. In a world of labels he defied categorization. He was a member of both the ACLU and the NRA. As a loyal friend and family member, he was their biggest fan. He will be greatly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

The Addison Family and staff extend their condolences to the Leblanc family.

Tribute Wall

“ Greg LeBlanc

July 20, 2022 at 05:14 PM