

Gregory Huckabay

July 15, 1965 - July 7, 2022

Gregory Scott Huckabay of Spring, Texas, passed away in the early morning hours of July 7, 2022, in Houston, Texas.

Greg was born on July 15, 1965, to Roy and Pat Huckabay in Pasadena, Texas. After graduating from Sam Rayburn High School in 1983, he was proud to say he attended “The School of Hard Knocks”. Greg went on to follow in his father and older brother’s footsteps and became an entrepreneur. He spent many of his adult years in the manufactured housing business, among many other endeavors. He and his brother owned and operated ten mobile home dealerships as well as a full-service trucking fleet all in the state of Texas. During the past year, he began selling his last dealership to start development of a mobile home community.

Greg was the proud father of two sons, Taylor and Garret. He loved spending time with his boys, especially going on cruises together. These trips were the source of his greatest joy.

Greg enjoyed golf, bowling, hunting, fishing, gambling, and traveling. He also loved spending Sunday afternoons watching professional football games for enjoyment, and sometimes for financial interests as well! Greg made friends easily throughout his life, and many of these were lifelong, staying in touch throughout the years. These friendships added another dimension of happiness for Greg, each of which he treasured.

Greg was predeceased by his father, Roy Huckabay; grandparents C.L. and Mildred Tinney; and R.V. and Lexa Huckabay.

He is survived by his mother, Pat Huckabay; two sons, Taylor Huckabay and Garret Huckabay; brother Steve Huckabay; sister-in-law, Jocelyne; niece, Megan, and nephew, Cole; two aunts, Sandra Teel and Betty Merryman; many cousins and a whole host of friends.

Greg enjoyed life, there was no doubt about that. He was an extremely giving person who was always there to lend a helping hand when needed. Greg loved hard and played hard and will be dearly missed by the many who loved him.

“ I have many memories of Greg. When Uncle Roy owned the store and trailer park, we would be at Grandma and Grandpa Huckabay’s house visiting and if Uncle Roy was working he’d call and have us to come to the store and get us a icee and Grandpa would do the same thing. I remember when they lived in Pasadena (I can’t remember what street it was on) and had a built in swimming pool. We went over there to visit and Grandpa and Grandma Huckabay were there. Grandpa watched us will we were swimming and everybody was in the house some cooking and some just chatting. As we became adults, I lost contact with them but my parents never did. When I needed to talk to somebody, I knew I could call Greg and he always listened and gave me his opinion. I’m going to miss him but I’m not saying goodbye, I’m saying that I’ll see ya one day. My thoughts and prayers are with Aunt Pat, Greg’s sons, Steve, Jocelyn, Cole, and Megan. He’s in heaven with Uncle Roy and they’re watching over y’all
