

Hayden William Barbosa Huseh

July 2, 2005 - June 1, 2020

Hayden William Barbosa Huseh, age 14, died on Monday, June 1, 2020. Hayden was born on July 2, 2005 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Hayden was known by his friends to be kind-hearted, always caring for others. His wry sense of humor brought smiles to the faces of people he knew, especially his brother. His creativity with Legos and developing online videos and pictures will be cherished. Gaming with his friends was his favorite pastime. He also loved astronomy, playing soccer, swimming, time spent with his grandparents, and the adventurous road trips he took with family to experience life at the beach, in the mountains, or even making a guy's trip with his Dad and brother to find the perfect spot to watch the solar eclipse. Hayden is survived by his parents, Eric and Maria "Neide" Huseh; his younger brother Kaio; his paternal grandparents Layne (and Roy) Williams and Darrell (and Diane) Huseh; his maternal grandfather, Pedro Barbosa; his numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins in the USA & Brazil, and his beloved pet dog, Milo. He is preceded in death by his maternal grandmother Ana Gomes Barbosa.

“ Deepest sympathy for Hayden's family. He was a great friend. I may have only known him for 2 years and we only talked during gym class, but those were some of the greatest and most fun moments of my life. He was really funny and awesome to talk to. He really brightened up those 2 years for me. I hope everything gets better and that he rests in peace.
